Agencies' funds up

(Editorial on Page 50)
The Tri-Cities Area United Way board of directors voted Tuesday afternoon to increase agency allocations from $411,667 for the 1974 calendar year to $442,944 for 1975.

Tree of Lights at 56%

Salvation Army "Tree of Lights" contributions have reached $9,298 or 56 per cent of the $16,500 goal.

Additional gifts are being encouraged in order to finance the annual distribution of food, clothing and toys to needy families during the Christmas holiday season.

The $9,298 total includes $1,669 raised by volunteer "bell ringers" at Tree of Lights contribution kettles near business places.

Raising the $1,669 were the Monday and Breakfast Kiwanis clubs, the Granite City and Madison-Venice Rotary clubs, Moose Lodge 272, Tri-City Shrine Club and First Baptist Church.

Contributions of $100 or more have been received from the Quad-Cities Ministerial Association, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Solomon, Granite City Trust and Savings Bank and Chief Circuit Judge and Mrs. Fred P. Schuman.

Those giving $50 or more include Paul H. Lichtenberger, H. D. Karandjef, Leon Corlew, B. E. Hohl, Cohen's Food Store, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bauer, Lueders, Robertson and Konzen.

Also, St. John's Churchmen's Fellowship, Edward and Shirley Berner, Madison Mothers' Club, Dr. F. Scott Hendrickson, Hod Carriers and Laborers, and Mrs. Robert L. Brave, John P. Bates, C. E. Eads, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gardner Jr. and A. H. Seebold Co.

Campaign Chairman Steve Bristol commented today that bell ringers will be active again tomorrow afternoon and evening, and noted that each $25 contribution lights a new light on the Tree of Lights.

He added, "Christmas long ago would not have been quite the same without the angels, nor would it be today without the Salvation Army—not just because we'd miss their bells, carols and bright red kettles, but because we'd miss their smiles and spirited greetings on the street."

"But there's a much more important reason why Christmas without the Salvation Army would impoverish our community. It is simply this: For many people in need, there just wouldn't be any Christmas at all without the Salvation Army."

"That's why we hope all will drop a check in the kettle and not just some pocket change. Or send to Box 338, Granite City, Ill., 62040."

"Keep those bells ringing so that people who are hungry or in distress can always depend on the Salvation Army being here to help—not just at Christmas time, but all year."

through two successive over-the-top drives, including record receipts of $461,825 in the October-November 1974 campaign for 1975 agency operations.

Specific allocations are shown in the accompanying chart on this page. The allocations exceeded the $425,000 goal set for the newly-completed drive.

The $18,681 difference between the total drive pledges and the allocations is being added to reserve accounts, in conformity with new policies to create funds for disasters and emergency agency operations.

High praise was voiced by United Way President Paul H. Kelly for the campaign team led by George Pullanas, fall 1974 general chairman. Kelly is plant manager of the A. O. Smith Corp. on Granite City and Pullanas is vice president-administration of Granite City Steel.

Also commended was David Fox, chairman, and his United Way budget committee. Fox is vice president-marketing of the First Granite City National Bank.

budget committee and the executive committee, the United Way board adopted a 20-page document outlining budget principles and the relationship between the United Way and member agencies.

Fox also reported that teams from the budget committee have visited and studied all UW agencies and will continue close liaison with them as a way of aiding them in shaping programs to meet changing community needs.

In addition, in cooperation with Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, the committee planned to determine Quad-City workers' (Continued on Page 18)

Arrest after fatal shooting

Henry Uhls, 51, of 1720 Chestnut St., was fatally shot at close range at his home at 8:45 p.m. Monday. George E. Rodenhause, 47, was charged with voluntary manslaughter in connection with the shooting.

Rodenhouse, who lists addresses in the 4600 block of Kirkpatrick Homes and in the 1700 block of Chestnut St., was arrested at the home of friends in Wood River early Wednesday morning and was brought to the Granite City Jail at 4:10 a.m. Wednesday.

He appeared before a judge in Granite City Wednesday morning and his bond was set at $30,000.

The shooting allegedly occurred in front of Rodenhause's daughter, who was a guest at Mr. Uhls' home for dinner. The (Continued on Page 14)

Cutbacks in city programs like

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer
A warning that Granite City expects to encounter serious financial problems within the next two months was sounded Monday night by Mayor Paul Schuler.

The mayor told council members that they should begin considering cutbacks in their requests for funds and that "we're going to have to take some cuts before this is over."

Fund balances already are running low in most city accounts and there is no prospect of tax revenue at least until next June when the 1974 tax bills will become due. For that reason, he said, the city again should consider conducting its own tax collection to speed up distribution of tax income when the collection period does arrive.

The city's only major source of revenue other than local taxes is the monthly receipt of sales tax and income tax from the state. Monthly sales tax income has been ranging from $80,000 to $85,000, while the income tax allotment amounts to about $35,000 per month.

Retired labor director dies

Robert McCormick, 63, of 3122 Aubrey Ave., who retired July 1 this year as AFL-CIO Community Services director, died at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at St. Mary's Hospital, Richmond Heights, Mo.

ROBERT MCCORMICK

He had been ill two years and a patient at the hospital one day.

Mr. McCormick was a lifetime resident of Granite City. As community services director he served as liaison agent between community interests and organized labor and worked as a staff member of the Tri-Cities Area United Way.

He was a member of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church and was a former Grand Knight of the Knights of Columbus 1088.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Dorothy (Fulke) McCormick; one son, Terry McCormick; and a daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Bradley, both of Granite City; two sisters, Miss Bernadine McCormick of St. Louis and Mrs. Corwin (Frances) Davinroy of French Village, Ill., and four grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Johnson Road fire station K'd 10-2

A long-standing controversy over zoning procedures under which Granite City could build a new Nameoki area fire station at Richmond Avenue and Johnson Road was resolved by the City Council Monday night in a 10 to 2 vote granting the city a special use permit for the fire station project.

In approving a motion by Alderman Ronald Coleman of the Seventh Ward in which the fire station will be located, the aldermen bypassed a report of the City Plan Commission had in which no specific recommendation on the fire station issue was made.

The Plan Commission report of its Dec. 12 meeting, which was presented by Coleman as chairman of the council's Planning and Zoning committee, informed the aldermen that no decision was reached on the city's petition for a special use permit because it could not muster a deciding vote either for or against the request.

While a delegation of about ten persons who have been objecting to construction of a fire station at the Richmond-Johnson location was in the audience, none of them asked permission to speak. A group of neighborhood residents has opposed the plan since the city bought the land for the fire station a year ago.

A vote on the issue after only brief discussion followed a caucus of council members in which Mayor Paul Schuler explained to the aldermen that the Plan Commission had acted one way or another on the city's petition for a use permit and that it would be up to the council to decide the issue.

City Attorney George Filloff said during the caucus it was his opinion that the city could have built the fire station regardless of any rezoning procedure because the law permits municipalities to build public structures in areas zoned as residential. The area where the new station would be located is in an R-1 single family classification.

"We've got about 11 or 12 people who don't want it, but we've got about 10,000 who want it and need it," Filloff said.

Originally the city requested a rezoning of the Richmond-Johnson firehouse site to an M-2 (industrial) classification, but because of legal technicalities changed the request to a petition for a special use permit.

Nameoki-Lindell traffic light slated

The Granite City Council cleared the way Monday night for installation of an electric traffic signal at Nameoki Road and Lindell Boulevard with award of a contract for the installation work.

The contract was awarded to R. Dron Electric Co. of Granite City on a bid of $22,000 subject to approval of the working plans by City Engineer Monroe Brewer.

The cost will be shared on a 50-50 basis by the city and by Nameoki Village Shopping Center under a plan similar to that approved for installation of a traffic signal at Nameoki Road and Manley Avenue to facilitate the traffic flow to and from the Crossroads Plaza Shopping Center.

Brewer said the basic work for installation of the traffic signals at Lindell Boulevard will proceed as soon as detailed plans are completed, but that operation of the signals will depend upon the time required to obtain mastarms which extend the lights into the center of the intersection.

Because of limited sources of the mastarms, delivery of these items can take as long as six months, Brewer said. A delay of several months in activating new signals at three intersections on Madison Avenue has resulted because of the design of mastarms originally obtained for the intersections at 27th and 23rd streets and Niedringhaus Avenue.

The council also referred to Brewer a letter from State Highway District Engineer Robert Kronst concerning plan changes that must be made in a drainage line to be built in conjunction with the new PA Route 151 overpass over Chicago Avenue.

Brewer explained that the specifications for the overpass called for a stormwater drain instead of a combined stormwater and sanitary line. Changes must be made in the agreement because of the different type of joints needed in the drainage lines, he said.

A report by City Treasurer Paul Rutledge and City Clerk Robert Stevens showing a balance of $989,914 in federal revenue sharing funds for all five entitlement periods was approved by the aldermen and placed on file.

The report showed the city has received a total of $982,628 in revenue sharing money, plus $20,975 in interest, for total revenue of $1,003,603. Expenditures total $409,689.

An ordinance authorizing a four-way stop at 17th and State streets, was enacted.

A bill of $14,900 by C.D. Peters Construction Co. for construction work on the Dream Villa area sanitary sewer system was approved, but Rutledge told the aldermen that he does not have the money to pay it because a $50,000 bond sale to finance the work has not been consummated.

On a motion by Alderman Clyde Boyd, chairman of the Street and Alley committee, the council approved a bid call for work on the street department quarters at 2500 Adams St., where showers and other facilities for workers are to be installed.

Reeves Redi-Mix Concrete Co., was awarded a contract to furnish 500 tons or more of 2-inch aggregate for street work at a price of $4 per ton. The firm was the lowest of four bidders.

Underwriters to hear H. R. Bentsen

Harry R. Bentsen, vice-president and director of advanced underwriting for the Franklin Life Insurance Co., Springfield, will be featured speaker at a meeting of the Lewis and Clark Life Underwriters Association Friday.

Approximately 100 association members are expected to attend the meeting at the Lewis and Clark Restaurant, Alton, where Bentsen's topic will be the 1974 Individual Retirement Act.

Introducing Bentsen will be B. H. "Bill" Terrell, area manager for Franklin in Granite City and vice-president of the association.

Personnel appraisal proposed

A tentative plan for evaluation of administrative personnel in the Granite City School system was presented to the Board of Education at a meeting Tuesday night by the policy committee.

Recommendations of the committee, which met earlier this month, said the appraisal of the administrative function should serve mainly to improve the quality of instruction and educational service to the children of the community through sound educational leadership; raise the standards of the educational profession and increase the effectiveness of the individual administrator in his or her respective role.

The committee further suggested the appraisal of administrator performance be a continuous process, positive and constructive in design, to include all personnel and that the superintendent be accountable for developing effective appraisal techniques and maintenance of professional standards regarding the appraisal process.

Another meeting of the policy committee is set for early January to complete a comprehensive plan.

Vasil Eftimoff, director of Pupil Personnel Services, submitted a detailed report on a meeting with the Madison County Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependency.

The goal of the program is the reduction of drug abuse in Madison County and purpose of the program is to assist youth in the identification, and development of meaningful and rewarding decisions concerning drug use, according to the report.

Board members approved changes in the present policy on the use of facilities by local organizations.

Overpass aided by thawing of highway funds

"It has been a long fight to get the $10.5 million in so-called highway freeze funds back to work in District Eight. But after almost four long years I can see how worthwhile the fight has been," Sen. Sam M. Vadalabene said today.

He was speaking in reference to award of a contract to construct a highway-railroad grade separation structure at Chicago Avenue and the Granite City installation railroad yard.

"At a time when it is sorely needed, we are seeing $2,000,000 being pumped into the economy of the area," Vadalabene continued.

"Even more important is the long-range impact this will have on the Granite City area and surrounding region."

"We have long recognized the importance of Federal Aid Route 151, which we proudly call the Great River Road, to the community."

"Now we will eliminate the dead-end at the Army Installation, making for much quicker and convenient access to the entire area."

District 34 Safety and Health programs of the Steelworkers was appointed in 1972 by Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie to the newly formed 15-member Occupational Safety and Health Advisory Committee for Illinois, on which he continues to serve.

Becker is chairman of the Granite City Board of Fire and Police Commissioners which oversees the activities of the city fire and police departments.

He was appointed a commissioner in 1973 by Mayor Paul Schor and since has been active in the reorganization of the police department.

He also served on Gov. Ogilvie's ad hoc committee in 1973 to try and split the East Side Levee and Sanitary District along the Madison-St. Clair County lines. The committee's efforts were defeated by an adverse court decision.

Becker is a lifelong resident of the Quad-City area and graduated from Granite City High School in 1946. He entered the U. S. Marine Corps in 1946 and was discharged two years later as a corporal.

Becker is for the Castings Division of General Steel Industries; McDonnell Douglas Aircraft Co., and Granite City Steel.

When the Korean War started, Becker joined the U. S.

Army, serving from 1950 to 1952 when he was discharged as a first sergeant.

He returned to Granite City Steel and in 1953 went to work for Dow Chemical Co. in Madison. He became active in Steelworkers Local 4804 at Dow and held his first union office in 1955. He was president of that local in 1960.

In 1965 he was named to his present post of staff representative out of the Granite City office.

Becker and his wife, Jane, have three children: Matthew, 10, at home, George Becker III of Edwardsville, and Gregory, a former Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville student who presently is working at American Steel Foundries. Gregory will enter Illinois State University at Bloomington Jan. 12.

The vacant staff representative post here is to be filled by Cliff Arends, former staff representative in Kansas City, Mo., who already has joined the Granite City staff.

Becker said he is spending the remainder of this month submitting his resignations and "cleaning up some loose ends" on his various committees and activities.

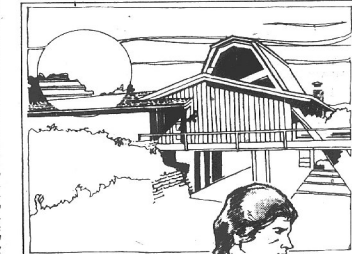

Commenting for he and his family, he said, "We have been so deeply involved in the community that the family and I just really hate to leave. It was the hardest decision of my life to make."

Rites today for Jos. Burle, 86

Funeral services will be held this afternoon in an Edwardsville funeral home for Joseph Burle, 86, of Rural Route Four, Edwardsville, who died Monday in Jefferson Barracks Veterans Hospital, St. Louis.

Mr. Burle, a resident of the Edwardsville area 67 years, was a retired security guard at the Granite City Army Installation. He leaves a daughter, two grandsons and one great-grandchild.

Michael J. Howlett, Illinois' secretary of state, expects to provide for "instant issuance of drivers' licenses, with the drivers' pictures on them, by Jan. 1, 1976."

"Data processing is a critical function in American life," Howlett said today. "It touches every citizen—everyone who writes a check, drives a car, carries a credit card, goes to school or accepts public assistance."

"It is especially useful in the Secretary of State office. It helps us process six million car and truck license plate applications a year and nearly three million car and truck license plate applications a year and nearly three million driver license applications."

"Data processing improvement is one of many steps we have taken to provide better service to the public at lower cost. Our office does more work now with fewer personnel than when I was inaugurated two years ago."

"We strive for professionalism in our data processing. We have ongoing education programs and seminars to keep up with the latest developments."

"Use of computers is central in our new Regulate operation, which will combine processing work—now handled separately—for title certificate and license registration applications."

"Two new forms will replace 24 needed under the old system. For the first time, a car buyer will be able to obtain his title and his license plates in a single application."

"The General Assembly has authorized our office to put photographs of Illinois drivers on their driver licenses, in color. Last year, the legislators gave us the seed money to make a pilot test."

"The test has been completed. We have a program ready to begin. We expect to obtain the appropriation in 1975 to start the program by Jan. 1, 1976."

"It will be three years later before every driver will have his photo on the license card because the picture will be taken when an expiring license comes up for renewal, on the driver's birthday, over a three-year cycle."

"Our new system will provide for instant issuance in the driver license examination station. The driver no longer will need to wait for his license to be processed in the mail."

"We will have computer terminals in the station to check an applicant's driving record in the master file at Springfield. The computer will print an application card, ready for the camera, with identification information."

"The card will be placed into the camera and photographed simultaneously with the applicant. It will be processed immediately and the finished license handed to the driver before he leaves the station."

"The portrait on a license will be an advantage to the licensee and to the business which accepts his license as personal identification. It will help prevent use of borrowed, counterfeit and stolen licenses."

"Instant issuance will be a convenience to a driver who loses his license. He can obtain a duplicate in a few minutes at an exam station. Under the old system, he must wait at least two weeks for a replacement."

"Our office now collects about $9 million a year in title fees and $260 million in registration fees—ten times what it costs to handle the applications and issue the titles and plates. What we collect goes into the state treasury."

"With up-to-date data processing equipment, professionalized personnel and a relentless, unceasing search for better ways to do things, we will make the office of Secretary of State a model for government everywhere."

B. H. Strotheide, 85, dies

Benjamin H. Strotheide, 85, of Trenton, Ill., a retired mechanic, died at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Grange Nursing Home in Mascoutah, Ill.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Alvina Strotheide; two daughters, Mrs. Jane Davis of Odesa, Tex. and Mrs. Elinor Zahn of Trenton; two sons, Sidney Strotheide of Collinsville and Eugene Strotheide of Columbus, S.C.; 11 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren, and nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

GC Steel workers to be honored

Engraved wristwatches will be presented to 173 Granite City Steel employees honoring completion of 25 years of service. The awards will be made at a dinner tonight at Sunset Hills Country Club, Edwardsville.

GCS chairman Nicholas P. Veeder—himself completing 40 years of employment—will present the awards to those whose service anniversaries were reached in 1974. Top executives and department superintendents of the honorees also will be on hand to help present the award watches to the employees, all of whom started to work for Granite City Steel in 1949.

There are 101 residents of the Quad-Cities in the group.

NEW HOPE PAST MATRONS OBSERVE HOLIDAY SEASON Past Matrons of New Hope Chapter 432, Order of Eastern Star, met for dinner Tuesday evening at the Sunset Hill Holiday Inn.

Observing the holiday season were Mesdames Evelyn Harris, Helen Merz, Thelma Johnson, Sara Dempsey, Roberta Lester, Carol Hildebrand, Bess Weiss, Donna Woodard, Lou Anderson, Gertrude Lowry, Estella McBrien, Marie Hockstra, Alene George, Marilyn Whitworth, Louise Cook and a guest, Amy Hildebrand.

STEELER FREE THROW is successfully tried by Larry Jones (not in view) in this action scene during North High School's 52-50 conquest of Wood River here Tuesday night. Steelers visible are Mike Waldo (41) and Tom Shocker (34).

Steeler quintet rallies to edge Wood River by 52-50

"When you are trailing by two with time running out," said GCHS North's Bill Ohlendorf, "you had better decide to move a little bit. And that's what we did."

The Steeler cage mentor was speaking of the fourth quarter action here Tuesday, and North's 52-50 final edge over visiting Wood River at the GCHS South gymnasium.

North trailed the Oilers 13-12 at the end of the first period and was down 20-18 at halftime.

Still trailing by two, 36-34, going into the last period of play, North tightened its defense and put extra pressure on Wood River.

The Steelers made good on four out of six foul shots off other infractions.

North coupled the charity tosses with field goals by Larry Jones, Darrell Page and Mike Waldo for the victory.

Aiding the win was North's ability to force 15 enemy turnovers while the Steelers gave up the ball only seven times.

Each team made 22 field goals.

North held the edge on free shots, connecting on eight of 15. Wood River hit six of 11 from the foul line.

The Oilers played the boards well defensively to lead in rebounding, 30-21. Wood River fouled 16 times to North's 14.

Heading North's scoring were 14 points apiece by Jones and Page. Greg Gauert added eight points, Waldo and Tom Shocker six each, and Gene Logan and Rick Spurluck, two each.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD
Thurs., Dec. 19, 1974 Page 6

Wood River lost possession of the ball in its last two trips down the hardwood floor. The Oilers still had a chance with two seconds remaining but were unable to get off a shot at the basket before time ran out. Kevin Green led the losers with 18 points.

The Oilers were able to get their 22 field goals on 40 shots, compared to 46 shots utilized by the Steelers in accumulating their 22 two-pointers.

Warriors, Trojans, Steelers in Tiger holiday cage meet

Three Quad-City area high schools — Madison, GCHS North and GCHS South — are entered in this year's Edwardsville Holiday Cage Classic which gets under way at 9 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 26.

Last year, Madison and North participated in the Edwardsville tournament, while South played in the Pontiac tourney.

Madison went on to take runner-up honors, losing 70-50 to the host school in the title contest.

North won its first game and was eliminated in a quarterfinal contest 69-54 by the eventual champion.

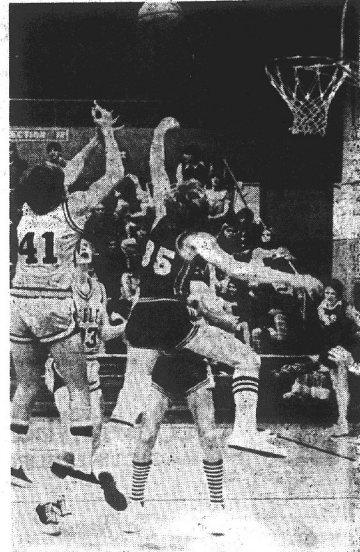

Eight round 1974 pairings include: GCHS South vs. Triad at 9 a.m. Dec. 26; Hillsboro vs.

Roxana, 10:30 a.m.; East St. Louis vs. Springfield, 1 p.m.; GCHS North vs. Peoria, 2:30 p.m.; GCHS North vs. Bethalto, 4 p.m.; Elk Grove vs. Madison, 6:30 p.m.; Jerseyville vs. Edwardsville, 8 p.m.; and Glenbard East vs. Southwestern (Piasa), 9:30 p.m.

Should South win Thursday, it would play next at 1 p.m. Friday. If it loses Thursday, it would play next at 9 a.m. Friday.

A win by North Thursday would place it in a 6:30 p.m. contest Friday. If it loses Thursday, it would play next at 4 p.m. Friday.

The same schedule, 4 or 6:30 Friday, depending on a win or a loss, would apply to Madison.

SCORING FOR NORTH quintet in its 52-50 win over the Wood River Oilers Tuesday, Mike Waldo (41) connects on this field goal attempt despite the defensive efforts of the visitors' Don Donohoo (35).

Hot scoring hands of Venice High crush Valmeyer 93-50

The Red Devil cagers of Venice High School handed visiting Valmeyer its fourth loss of the season Tuesday. Venice's varsity and junior varsity players shared the honors in a 93-50 romp.

Venice executed its scoring attack from all over the court.

Jeff Corrie tallied 16 points with shots from the edge of the foul line. Mike Henry took to the inside for 14, and Reggie Gardner scored 16, mostly from the corners.

The varsity's portion of the contest saw the Devils lead 21-8 and then 37-23 at halftime.

"We really had a hot hand in the second quarter," said Venice Coach Richard Essington. "Our players made good 17 of 20 field goal attempts in that quarter."

"A lot of the credit has to be given to the defense," he continued.

"We switched from our normal full-court press to half-court, with man-to-man assignments. We sagged and then picked up their attack at mid-court, and it worked."

The jayvee players picked up the varsity pace to stretch the lead to 73-40 at the end of three periods and then doubled Valmeyer's pointmaking, 20-10, in the final quarter.

Overall, Venice put in 45 of 89 attempted goals and was three of nine at the foul line. Valmeyer made good 23 shots from the field and earned four points on charity tosses.

Each team committed nine fouls. Venice pulled down 42 rebounds.

Scoring also for the Devils were Mike Logan, 12 points, Tim Walker 10, James Turner eight, Algie Crawford six, James Crowder five, Larry Arnold four and Rick Salmond, two.

Madison-St. Clair High School Ice Hockey competition resumes this weekend with only two games due at the Wilson Park ice rink here, both on Friday.

At 10:30 p.m., Edwardsville will clash with the Alton Flames. Granite City and Wood River take to the ice at 11:45 p.m. Friday.

In previous competition, Granite City defeated Wood River 6-2 and then lost 7-5.

Collinsville drew a bye this weekend. Association team standings are: Alton 9-1, Edwardsville 6-4, Wood River 4-4-1, Granite City 3-6 and Collinsville 1-9.

TAVERN BURGLARIZED — About $984 in cash, seven cases of assorted liquor and an undetermined amount of a band's musical and electrical equipment were stolen during a burglary at Pat's Lounge, Highway 162 and Edwards Drive, it was reported at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Jones, Glaspers aid Sanford team

Sanford-Brown College, St. Louis, won its third straight cage game Tuesday, 67 over St. Louis Christian College.

The Indians' win was aided by Granite City's Greg Jones, who hit three straight free throws to stretch his consecutive streak to 25. Jones tallied nine points and had six assists.

Adding to the victory were Madison's Ron and Roger Glaspers. Ron Glasper made five points and Roger Glasper had four points and five assists.

Three alarms were answered Tuesday.

At 12:45 a.m. Monday an overheated oil furnace caught fire in the home of Mrs. Nancy Mathenia, 702 Twenty-sixth St. No loss was reported and firemen were at the scene 15 minutes.

At 1:55 a.m. Tuesday firemen were called to an apartment occupied by Thomas Eastabrook, 1924 Edison Ave., where a mattress caught fire. Damage was estimated at $60.

A smoke ejector was used to clear the basement of the home of Joseph Yelinek, 1704 Delmar Ave., after a cigarette started a fire in some sawdust. Firemen estimated the loss at $300 and were at the scene for 30 minutes.

At 2:40 a.m. Tuesday firemen were called to a vacant home being remodeled by John Overholtz of Glen Carbon. The fire was believed caused by a short in an electric outlet, causing $2,500 in damages. Firemen were at the scene for over an hour.

An auto cabaretor backfire at 7:20 p.m. Tuesday at 23rd and State streets, caused an auto fire that did an estimated $500 damage to the auto owned by Henrietta Sanders, 2528 Circle Drive.

A smoke ejector was used to clear the basement of the home of Joseph Yelinek, 1704 Delmar Ave., after a cigarette started a fire in some sawdust. Firemen estimated the loss at $300 and were at the scene for 30 minutes.

At 7:30 p.m. at Grigsby, Winners' bracket finalists will play at 8:30 p.m.

Vashon and then Freeburg tourney for Venice five

Venice High School, now 3-1, will face Vashon of St. Louis here at 8 p.m. Friday before looking toward a possible seventh title crown in next week's Freeburg-Columbia holiday cage tournament at Freeburg. The Red Devils lost the title only in 1968 and 1971.

In this year's meet, which begins at 9 a.m. next Thursday, Venice has again been ranked the top-seeded team.

First-round pairings include: Red Bud vs. Gihault at 9 a.m.; Odin vs. Lebanon, 10:30 a.m.; Central vs. Columbia, 1 p.m.; Brooklyn vs. Staunton, 2:30 p.m.; Valmeyer vs. New Athens, 5 p.m.; Steeleville vs. Venice, 6:30 p.m.; Freeburg vs. Wood River, 8 p.m.; and Coulterville ms. Weslin, 9:30 p.m.

If it wins next Thursday, Venice will play next at 8 p.m. Friday, Dec. 26. It will play next at 1 p.m. Friday, Dec. 27.

Three alarms were answered Tuesday.

At 12:45 a.m. Monday an overheated oil furnace caught fire in the home of Mrs. Nancy Mathenia, 702 Twenty-sixth St. No loss was reported and firemen were at the scene 15 minutes.

At 1:55 a.m. Tuesday firemen were called to an apartment occupied by Thomas Eastabrook, 1924 Edison Ave., where a mattress caught fire. Damage was estimated at $60.

A smoke ejector was used to clear the basement of the home of Joseph Yelinek, 1704 Delmar Ave., after a cigarette started a fire in some sawdust. Firemen estimated the loss at $300 and were at the scene for 30 minutes.

721 schools are entered in 120 regional cage tourneys

A record number of high school basketball teams this year will compete at 56 Class AA and 64 Class A regional tournament sites in 1974. Harry Fitzhugh, executive secretary of the Illinois High School Association (IHSA), has tabulated the entries.

About 260 schools, each with an enrollment of 751 students or more, will compete in the Class AA series, while 461 will battle in Class A series for schools with enrollments of 750 students or fewer.

Granite City High School North and South are in Class AA. Madison and Venice are Class A schools.

"This year's competition," speculated Fitzhugh, "may be our best ever because of several factors."

"One is the addition of members of the Chicago Catholic League, along with two other parochial schools in Chicago, to the association."

"Another is the jump of several Class A schools, particularly defending Class A champion Lawrenceville — into the large school classification."

In addition to Lawrenceville, Fitzhugh announced that Bolingbrook, Herscher, Lansing (Illiana Christian) and Robinson have risen in enrollment to Class AA status. Drooping from Class AA to Class A is Breese (Mater Dei), which finished fourth in the 1973 Class AA state finals.

Lawrenceville beat Ottawa

(Marquette) to claim its second Class A championship in the three-year history of that class. With the defending champion being assigned to the larger enrollment class, the way is open for a new Class A champion.

Maywood (Proviso East) topped Chicago Heights (Bloom) for the Class AA championship.

Another change which should intensify competition in the series is a new format which provides for either a four-team or six-team regional, whenever possible, in Class AA.

In the Class AA series, 37 of the 56 regionals will be four-team tournaments, 17 will be six-team battles, and only two will be five-team affairs.

The five-team tournaments will be hosted by Mount Zion and Palatine.

Defending champion Maywood will host its own regional, and the field there includes Catholic League representatives De LaSalle and Mendel Catholic in a six-team setup.

At Oak Park River Forest, the Huskies will be joined by Chicago (Holy Trinity), Chicago (Latin School), Chicago (St. Ignace), Chicago (St. Michael's Central) and Oak Park (Penwick).

Lawrenceville and Robinson, two of the schools moving up to Class AA status, will join Mt. Carmel and host Olney (East Richmond).

Granite City Press-Record, Thurs., Dec. 19, 1974 Page 7

ional winner will play at Carbondale (Central) in a super-sectional game March 18.

Dates for the fourth annual Class A tournament series are: regionals — Feb. 24-28; sectionals — March 4-7; super-sectionals — March 11; and state finals — March 14-15 at the Assembly Hall in Champaign.

The Class AA state finals will be March 21-22, also at the University of Illinois at Champaign.

Of the 64 Class A regionals, 51 are seven-team tournaments, while the remaining 13 are eight-team affairs.

Breese (Mater Dei), with an enrollment of 720, is assigned to the Okawville Regional.

Madison and Venice are assigned to the seven-team Dupro regional along with Belleville (St. Henry's), Columbia, the host school, Freeburg and Brooklyn.

The Dupro regional victor will advance to the sectional at Vandalla. The Vandalla winner will play in a super-sectional at Eastern Illinois University at Charleston.

More emphasis will be placed on the individual event winner in the scoring of teams in dual track meets, according to rules changes announced this week by the National Federation of State High School Associations.

This year, three places will be awarded points in the individual events, with first place being worth five points, second will be worth three points and third will be worth one.

The winner of each relay race will receive five points, and the loser none.

Trojans outrun Greyhounds

Madison High School's basketball Trojans posted their fourth straight victory Tuesday with an 87-73 defeat of the Lebanon Greyhounds at the Madison gymnasium.

The Trojans got off to a 22-19 lead at the end of the first period but trailed by three, 36-33, at halftime.

"We really confused them," said a Madison spokesman, "in the third period, causing Lebanon to virtually throw the ball away with our mixture of man-to-man and zone defensive presses."

Madison added to Lebanon's confusion in that period, switching the pace of the game by fast-breaking with the ball.

The 20 Trojan points provided a 63-51 lead going into the final quarter, in which MHS outscored the visitors 24-22.

Ron Jones tallied 25 points for his team with long shots from deep in the corners, and Rudolph Bradley and Darryl Franklin each scored 24 points.

Bradley pulled down 14 rebounds off the boards, and made good eight of 19 field goal attempts. He also netted eight of 14 charity tosses.

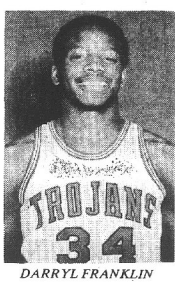

Franklin got his hands on 13 rebounds and was 11 of 19 from the field. He connected on two out of four free shots.

Three Greyhounds doubled-digit scoring—Don Burns 20, Rodney Brooks 17 and Rich Norman 10.

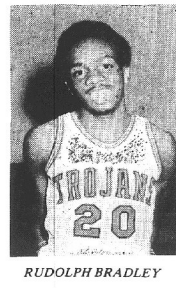

The local team hit 56 per cent of its field goal attempts, 38 of 75, and totaled 11 points from the foul line in 24 tries.

Lebanon made 29 of 75 shots from the field and was 15 of 27 from the foul line.

fouls, 21-17, but had the fewest turnovers, 23-25. Madison worked the boards to take 53 rebounds away from Lebanon while losing 31 to the enemy.

Rounding out Madison's scoring were Mike Williams and Emmett Timmons, with six points each, and Curtis Bradley, two.

The Trojans are idle until Thursday, Dec. 26, when they will carry their 6-1 record into first round competition at the Edwardsville holiday cage classic.

Opti-Mrs. attend holiday luncheon

The Granite City Opti-Mrs. Club held its annual Christmas luncheon Monday in the fellowship hall at Central Christian Church.

Twenty-six were seated for the covered dish meal, served at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Ruth Brave, president, was in charge of the luncheon meeting. Gifts were exchanged and Christmas carols were sung.

Winning prizes were Mrs. Theodore Aufderheide, Mrs. Dale Arnette, Mrs. Arthur Roseman, Mrs. Helen Meyer and Mrs. H. C. Blake.

Band Parents regroup at Venice

Venice Band Parents held their first meeting of the 1974-75 school year last week, with Don Mancell, band director, reviewing the constitution, bylaws and goals of the organization.

Mancell announced that 40 new members have enrolled in the band which now totals 70 student musicians.

New officers of the Venice band are: John Williams, president; P. J. Wilkins, vice president; Sherry Wiley, secretary; Lisa Harmon, treasurer; Pam Rankin and Melanie Marshbanks, managers; Tim Scaturro and Paula Morgan, librarians; Keith Marshbanks and Terrance Jones, attendance recorders.

Pi Eta Chapter tries recipes

"Recipes on Air" was the program presented by Mrs. Charlotte Charbonnier at a meeting Monday in her home, 2808 Warren Ave., for members of Pi Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

During the presentation, Mrs. Charbonnier compared old and new recipes and served a variety of snacks, salads, desserts and fondue as a practical demonstration.

Members also exchanged their favorite recipes.

A report was given by the hostess on the sorority's City Council meeting. Also announced were plans for a rush party in January and a regular meeting on Jan. 6 at the home of Mrs. Mary Anna Davis, 2827 Delmar Ave.

Mrs. Leona Parente entertains club

Mrs. Leona Parente, 1621 Lindell Blvd., entertained the Monday Afternoon Club this week for its Christmas party and an afternoon of games.

Those excelling at pinocle were Meddames V. Edwards, Marie Perry, Margaret Richardson and Kathy Murphy.

Also present were Mrs. Celi Kennedy, Myrtle Bruns and Mildred Gray. Mrs. Richardson will host the next meeting in her home, 2245 Pontoon Road.

Valerie Beatty becomes Mrs. George Schaefer

Miss Valerie Anne Beatty, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Beatty, 2556 Pontoon Road, and George Schaefer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schaefer Jr., 1 Schaefer Drive, Belleville, were united in marriage on Dec. 14 at St. Peter's Cathedral in Belleville.

The Rev. Carl Scherrer performed the double ring ceremony at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Joseph Schaefer III sang "Sunrise, Sunset," "Anne's Song" and "We've Only Just Begun," accompanied at the organ by Dennis York.

Escorted down the white carpeted aisle and given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a full length white polyester dress.

Lace motifs were applied at the oval neckline, across the shoulders and sleeves and marked the Empire waist.

She wore a melody length veil secured to a lace headpiece and she carried a cascade arrangement of roses, carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Matron of honor Mrs. Glenn Wright, a sister of the groom, and the maid of honor, Miss Barbara Beatty, the bride's cousin, were gowned alike.

Their dresses of deep red crepe were fashioned with V-necklines, Empire waists and short wide sleeves. A flounce edged the skirt.

Each wore a wide brim red hat and carried a bouquet of peppermint red and white carnations.

The groom chose his brother, Leo Schaefer, as best man. Frank W. Beatty Jr., a brother of the bride, was the groomsmen.

Herman Schaefer, another brother of the groom, and Joseph Fappia, a cousin of the bride, served as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Beatty chose a long green gown and coat ensemble. The sheath style frock was designed with a cowl neckline and the coat was fashioned of lace.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Schaefer, was attired in a pale aqua princess style dress made with a jewel neckline and bell sleeves. Both mothers wore red tea rose corsages.

A reception was held at the VFW Hall in Caseyville after the ceremony. Mrs. Michael Stone presided at the guest book.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents in their home.

The bride is a senior student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where she is majoring in computer science. She is a 1971 graduate of Granite City High School.

A graduate of SIUE with a chemistry major, the groom is employed as a research chemist at Monsanto in Creve Coeur, Mo.

Understanding favored over grading

By Prof. William P. Ahlbrand, Jr.

(Dr. Ahlbrand is chairman of the department of secondary education, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. His newest book, The Question as an Effective Teaching Strategy, will be published next year. Prof. Ahlbrand's opinions are his own, and do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the faculty or administrators of SIUE.)

In its present and most prolific form, I am adamantly opposed to grading. The procedure of grading (typically the A through F policy) is at once convenient and disruptive. It is convenient because it provides a procedure for admitting or denying students entrance into courses of study, institutions, or the job market. It is disruptive because it fosters competition instead of understanding.

Consider this: Schools purportedly exist to serve the student, to help him grow intellectually, physically, emotionally, and morally or ethically. Would any educator admit that he teaches because he likes to sit in judgment, to criticize, or to rank those who "sit at his feet"? I should hope not. Teaching implies helping and sharing in the development of others.

But if a teacher, locked into a system that demands As through Fs, grades according to that system and yet teaches well enough to distribute only As and Bs, he is regarded as softheaded or soft-headed or an easy mark for students. Not only that, he is frequently called to task for his "uneven" distribution of grades, as if no one can teach so well that all students can attain the instructional goals that are set for them. Or, if it is admitted that all students can attain the goals, the judgment is often made that the course of study is too easy.

A related issue is the amount of information students are expected to learn to successfully make it through the course. I have often wondered why there is such great emphasis placed on getting through the book, as if the vast accumulation of knowledge is a sign of scholarship and a prediction of success in life. I can remember that at one time in my education I had to memorize all the states and their capitals. I was also to remember the chief imports and exports of certain major countries. I must admit that I can no longer recall much of the information that I "needed" to know at the time.

I submit that emphasis should be placed on concepts to be learned and not simply large amounts of knowledge. Is grading, then, still necessary? Does one student still have to compete against another to learn concepts? It shouldn't be so. For all the typical grading procedure really does is indicate who can learn the material the fastest, not whether it has been learned. Think about the most common test. A certain amount of information is requested of the student within a carefully prescribed length of time, usually 40 to 50 minutes. Students respond knowing that they have a specific length of time in which to reply and not as much time as they might need. This time limitation simply reinforces the notion that the grade given is a reflection of who can learn the fastest. "Dumb kids" are really those who are never given enough time to learn the material.

I maintain that if the amount to be learned is decreased, and the student is given the time he needs to learn the material, and then, if grades still need to be assigned, all students should be able to master at least 80-85% of the material requested on a particular test. This translates into everyone receiving an A or a B for the test. Under these conditions, and only under these conditions, would I condone grading. Naturally, some time would have to be given in order that the "time to learn" concept operates throughout the entire school system.

It is not as difficult as one would imagine. What is wrong, for example, with setting educational objectives clearly before the student so he can see what the teacher thinks is important before the course is taught? What is wrong with the student asking: 1) Why the objectives are important; 2) Why there are, say, 20 objectives and not 18 or 15; and 3) Why he cannot demonstrate to the teacher before the course starts that he already can reach some of the objectives?

Only when the above (that is, a complete understanding between teacher and student) exists would I agree that grades have any meaning at all. I think it is time that we build understanding, tear down competition for excellence under time constraints, and foster the ability for one to really know himself.

Parties entertain handicapped

About 55 young people, sponsored by the Tri-City Association for Retarded, attended a holiday party during the weekend in the Fellowship Hall at St. John United Church of Christ.

Refreshments were served and gifts were exchanged.

The group was entertained by the Eagles Kitchen Band under the leadership of Mrs. Angie Buehler. Seasonal numbers and novelty tunes played on homemade musical instruments drew warm applause from the youthful audience.

The Eagles Kitchen Band has been entertaining retarded and handicapped children and young adults for the past 12 years, according to Mrs. Audrey Lewis, Association for Retarded president.

Prior to the party concluding, Mrs. Buehler and Mrs. Billie Schuler, Eagles Auxiliary president, presented a $100 check to Mrs. Lewis.

The funds, earned by band members at various performances, will be used for projects at the OATH (Organization to Aid the Handicapped) workshop at Sixth and State streets in Madison, Mrs. Lewis said.

Kitchen band members include Marge Hall, Dolores Klesh, Mildred Anchor, Katherine Clark, Nancy Mullens, Florence Hagnauer, Florida Batson, Janet Hagnauer, Cora Barr, Juanita

Also during the weekend, a Yuletide party for children was given in the St. John Church hall. Seventy youngsters sponsored by the local Association for Retarded were presented gifts by Santa Claus, portrayed by Ted Scrump.

Entertainment was furnished by twirling students from Sharold Young School of Baton,

The French Children and the Alan Bogavich Band from the National School of Music.

Members of the Macenas Club decorated the hall with appropriate seasonal appointments and served refreshments to the young guests.

Nurses attend dinner party

St. Elizabeth Hospital Nurses Alumnae spent Tuesday evening at Rustau's Restaurant, Collinsville, where dinner was served at tables festively appointed for the Christmas season.

The local nurses were welcomed by the restaurant's management with an illuminated sign displayed outside the building.

Mrs. Amelia Rapp, president, introduced four guests, Judy Redmond, Shirley Lybarger, Loretta Pritchard and Sharon Marni.

After dinner, the remainder of the evening was spent socially.

Members attending were Ginger Harlow, Martha Buschoff, Mary Saukils, Edna Wallace, Bernadine Cooley, Sophie Lasky, Alma Ryan, Lorene Turner, Clara Krause, Maxine Carson, Josephine Czerninski, Dorothy Bruce, Marguerite Fechte, Marge Hilker, Rudy Carison and Lois Hayes.

Nameoki Presbyterian programs

"God's Love Story" is the sermon topic to be presented by the Rev. Don F. Pierson, pastor of Nameoki United Presbyterian Church, 1700 Pontoon Road, at the 10:45 a.m. services Sunday.

Special music by the Chancel Choir, directed by Mrs. Beverly Scroggins and accompanied by Mrs. Valerie Stevens, also will be featured at the service.

A Christmas program under the direction of Pam Gagich will be presented at 7 p.m. Sunday, followed by refreshments.

Breakfast will be served at the home of Mrs. Jo Ann Watts at 9 a.m. Sunday for those taking part in the coffee and conversation hour. The group will adjourn in time to attend the worship service.

Mrs. Joan Bloomquist, youth fellowship sponsor, said the young people will meet at 7 p.m. Saturday at the church to go caroling in the neighborhood. The young married and young adult group will be entertained at a holiday party at 6:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 29, at the church. The event will be hosted by Mrs. Harriet Byers.

Tri-Mor seniors elect officers

The Senior Citizens Club of Brunswick Tri-Mor Bowl elected officers at a Yuletide dinner party held Tuesday at the bowling lanes.

Mrs. Kathryn Smithson was named president. Also elected were Hiram Marcus, vice president; and Mrs. Verna Moehle, treasurer.

Forty-six members attended the dinner. Pinochle was played during the afternoon.

The club meets each Tuesday at 1 p.m. at Tri-Mor lanes for cards and refreshments. Mrs. Smithson invited area senior citizens to join the club at the Jan. 7 meeting.

Bazaar Saturday at nursing home

Residents of Colonial Haven Nursing Home, 3900 Stevens Ave., will hold the second session of its first annual Christmas bazaar from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m. Saturday.

Featured at the bazaar, which is open to the public, will be baked goods, gift items, pillowcase sets and crocheted flower baskets.

Proceeds will be used to help purchase a grandfather clock for the patient's lounge area. Among the activities taking place at the nursing home this week, include a tape presentation by Graceland Baptist Church, entitled "Night of Miracles," a series of slides shown and narrated by Roland Gates about his trip to the Holy Land; and a Christmas concert by the Grigsby Junior High School choral group directed by Mrs. Ralph Barker.

A Mitchell Brownie troop led by Mrs. Margo Clements distributed handmade gifts to the residents, who also were assisted by Mary Reed in making Christmas tree ornaments.

The Venice Friendly Neighbors hosted a "fun" party and the Salvation Army provided gifts of fruit and candy to each person. A Christmas carol songfest was directed by the 58ers 4-H Club under the leadership of Mrs. Alyce Sigite.

Edward Lenzis mark 40th year

A surprise dinner party was given this week at Charlie's Restaurant honoring Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lenzis, 3225 Aubrey Ave., on their 40th wedding anniversary.

Hosting the affair were their children and families, including Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lenzis and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Lenzis, all of Granite City; and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamb of Ballwin, Mo.

During the evening the honorees received phone calls from Lenzis' brothers and sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lenzis and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lenzis, and his sister, Mrs. Ida Cassan, all of Rock Springs, Wyo.; and from their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Schroeder of Minnetonka, Minn.

The honored couple has 10 grandchildren who presented them with a rose corsage and boutonniere.

Those attending were the Rev. Edward Gresch, Mr. and Mrs. John Zotti, Mr. and Mrs. John Moseley, Mr. and Mrs. John Mink, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Lambert, Mrs. Opal Wallace of Granite City; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Perry and Mrs. Margaret Viero of Glen Carbon; Mr. and Mrs. William Schroeder, Florissant, Mo.; Mrs. Lillie Malvese and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Friedman of Carlinville; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. D. Murray, all of St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blanke of Webster Groves, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Preston McCoy of St. Charles, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Maples of Belleville and Michelle Lenzis.

Santa visits Cub Pack 107

Santa Claus made a surprise visit and distributed gifts to children at a meeting of Cub Pack 107, sponsored by the Venice-Madison American Legion Post 307.

The event was held at the Venice Recreation Center and the opening flag ceremony was given by Tim Scaturro and P. J. Wilkinson.

Cubmaster Peter Wilkinson, accompanied by Steve Blatz, led the group in singing "America."

Harold Buechele was in charge of an awards ceremony. Awards received, included: Engineer badge to Lloyd Blumenstock; artist badge, Ronnie Buechele; Webelos den chief colors, P. J. Wilkinson; and Wolf badge and gold and silver arrows, Terry Daniels. Mrs. Daniels was presented a replica Wolf pin.

Dens 1 and 2 presented Yule logs prepared at weekly meetings to their parents. During the social hour refreshments were served by Den 2 and Christmas carols were sung.

Between them, holding her Christmas gift from the young people, is Mrs. Zula Cruser; seated at far left is Mrs. Thelma Dutton.

Open line for calls on water, sewer problems

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD
Thurs., Dec. 19, 1974 Page 12

Metropolitan St. Louis is not on the verge of a water crisis, and a service to help avoid one in the future has been established through the Metro Study, a comprehensive investigation of the region's water resources being coordinated by the St. Louis District Corps of Engineers.

The service is the Metro Study Open Line — (314) 268-2850.

The open line telephone is manned from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. each weekday to receive citizens' calls about water-related problems and needs, and to answer questions about the study.

"No problem or need is too large or too small to be discussed with the Metro Study staff member who answers the open line," reports Col. T. Roger Peterson, district engineer.

"We certainly realize how serious a broken sewer line, a flooded basement or contaminated water can be to an individual."

"We know, too, that the recognition of small, isolated problems can mean the prevention of a crisis in the future."

Metropolitan planners are investigating problems and needs related to flood control and floodplain usage, water supply and quality, sewage treatment and wastewater management, groundwater and stormwater, water-oriented recreation, fish and wildlife conservation and environmental protection and enhancement.

Alternatives to solve the problems and meet future water-related needs also are being identified.

Col. Peterson noted, however, that problem identification and solving efforts reach far beyond the job of technicians and planners.

"We need to know specific locations of water-related problems in metropolitan St. Louis. That is why the open line was established," he said.

Information received from all calls to (314) 268-2850 will be referred to the Metro Study team for consideration in the development of plans, and will become part of official Metro Study records, he said.

Dec. 12 meeting, the commission members were unable to reach a decision on the earlier "pulling by the commission's attorneys" that a majority of seven yes votes was necessary to decide an issue. Since there are 12 board members, a favorable vote by a majority of the board membership rather than by a majority of the members present is required.

Objectors to the firehouse proposal requested at the Plan Commission meeting, which was attended by eight of the members, that Herman Schroeder abstain from voting since he, as a realtor, sold the land to the city and voting on it could present a conflict of interest.

Edwin F. Reiske, a commission member, made a motion that the city's request be rejected and member Barry Loman seconded the motion. Reiske's motion received a 4 to 3 vote, but lost because seven votes were needed.

On the basis of this action, the commission reported to the City Council that it had neither rejected nor approved the request for the use permit.

On Coleman's motion to grant the use permit, Alderman Emerald Dawes of the Seventh Ward and Alderman Walter Nann of the Fifth Ward cast the only negative votes.

Dawes remarked before the roll call vote that he was voting against the proposal because the people in his ward didn't want the fire station. Nann commented that the Plan Commission was "passing the buck" on the issue.

Voting for the use permit were Aldermen Claude Green, Frank Greenwald, Clyde Boyd, Roy Poulos, Sam Whitmer, William Dallas, Everett Morlen, Earl Baker, Steve Basarich and Coleman.

Aldermen R. E. Robertson and Gerald Parmley were absent.

Stanley D. Warrick dies

Stanley D. Warrick, 72, formerly of Granite City, a retired engineer of the Missouri-Pacific Railroad, died at 11:30 p.m. Monday, Dec. 9, in the Poplar Bluff, Mo., hospital after an illness of several years.

He was preceded in death by his wife, the late Mrs. Catherine Warrick.

Mr. Warrick is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Willis (Virginia) Kitchen of Madison and Mrs. Margaret Seuder of Concord, Calif.; four brothers, Sharon, Ted and Robert Warrick, all of Silva, Mo. and Eugene Warrick of Medford,

Apply next week for summer jobs

College students home for the holidays, high school students and others interested in summer employment with the Granite City Park District may apply at the Wilson Park office from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Thursday and Friday, Dec. 26 and Dec. 27, and Monday, Dec. 29.

Only park district residents who will reach their 16th birthday by June, 1975, or those who are older will be considered for summer jobs. Those applying are required to give their Social Security number.

Openings include recreation leaders, life guards, pool manager, park security guards, maintenance workers and concession stand attendants, among others.

BURGLARY ON DALE
A watch, a television, $5 in change, a clock-radio, a drill and liquor were stolen during a burglary at the home of Robert Chinn, 3041 Dale Ave., it was reported this week. A rear window was broken to gain entry. The items stolen were valued at more than $215.

Nameeki awards building job

The Nameeki Town Board of Auditors, meeting in special session Tuesday night, voted to accept a bid from Ed Moore Construction Co. to remodel and expand the town hall at 4200 Highway 162.

The board opened revised bids for the work at the Dec. 9 regular town board meeting and adjourned to discuss the bids with the architect, John Cohen. At that time they decided to accept Moore's original bid of $49,916, but called the special meeting to publicly accept the bid.

The township attorney was requested to prepare a contract for board consideration.

The first bids for the work were opened Nov. 25. They included Moore's bid of $49,916 and a bid from Henry Ross Construction Co. of $59,995.

Peeling the bids were excessive, the board voted to trim improvements of the existing building from the specifications and called for revised bids.

Moore was low in the revised bids at $40,174 while Ross submitted a bid of $46,737. The board then noted that for the $9,742 difference between Moore's initial bid and the revised bid, a new furnace and air conditioner and a new roof could not be completed for the present building. They then voted to accept Moore's initial bid.

Other internal improvements are planned in the present building, including the moving of partitions and new doorways. The addition is to be 50 feet long and 17 feet wide and will be across the front of the building. It will include space for the township assessor and tax collector who presently have offices at other locations. Additional space for general assistance and town workers also will be provided.

Louis Whitsell, township supervisor, had requested the board to consider authorizing him to approve the payroll for the township during periods when town board meetings were more than two weeks apart and workers had to wait for their paychecks.

The auditors declined to consider the issue Tuesday night, noting it should be brought up at a regular meeting. The next regular meeting will be 7 p.m. Monday, Dec. 23.

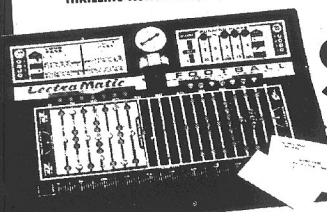

Whitsell asked permission to approve the payroll in such instances because it appears there will be three weeks between board meetings after Dec. 23.

comfort underwear

This quality underwear is styled for comfort and good fit. Because the fabric is 100% cotton, it's wonderfully absorbent and perfectly washable. Where there's elastic, it's made to stand up under lots of wearings and washings. Fruit of the Loom—they keep making it better—not expensive.

girl, a neighbor of Uhls, had been allowed by her mother to go to the home.

Rodenhouse allegedly came to the home with a can of beer in his hand and asked to be admitted. It is believed Uhls allowed him to enter and the two men and the girl sat at the kitchen table talking casually for 15 to 20 minutes.

Rodenhouse allegedly asked to take his daughter with him; the girl said she would rather stay and that she had her mother's permission to be there.

An argument is said to have ensued, with Uhls saying he would not allow the girl to be removed from the home without her permission.

A neighbor, Joe Judd, 22, of 1719 Chestnut St., knocked at the door and asked Uhls if he could borrow a couple of screwdrivers.

Uhls let him in and Judd and Uhls went into another room to get the screwdrivers; while they were gone, Rodenhouse allegedly took a pistol from his trousers and loaded one bullet into it.

When Uhls walked through the doorway, Rodenhouse allegedly stood up, and fired from close range.

A .38-caliber bullet entered Uhls' upper chest, passed through his heart and exited from his right side. He collapsed to the floor.

He was pronounced dead at the scene by Madison County Deputy Coroner Edward Werner at 9:15 p.m. Monday.

On Tuesday afternoon, police obtained a signed complaint and a warrant for Rodenhouse's arrest on the voluntary manslaughter charge.

All area police departments were notified and Alton police checked the home of Rodenhouse's friends, finding him there.

Mr. Uhls was born in Edgewood, Ill., and had lived in this area since childhood.

He was a veteran of the U.S. Navy.

He is survived by two sons, Darrell and Billy Uhls, of Vancouver, Wash.; four daughters, Mrs. Kathy Knight, Jeanie, Vickie and Cheryl Uhls, all of Seattle, Wash.; his mother, Mrs. Dorothy Wilson of Granite City; two brothers, Mark Uhls and Terry Wilson, Granite City; one sister, Mrs. Agnes Stringer, Rock Falls, Ill., and two grandchildren.

His father, Henry Uhls, died in 1974.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

County adopts use tax

A one per cent use-tax for purchases made outside of the state of Illinois and then titled or registered in Illinois was approved by the Madison County Board during its regular meeting Wednesday morning in Edwardsville.

Persons making purchases, such as automobiles, out of Illinois will have to pay an extra one per cent tax which will be given to the county. It is not

Mrs. Jean Teller

Past regents of Women of the Moose, Chapter 247, elected Mrs. Jean Teller as president for the coming year at a Christmas dinner party held Tuesday night at Charlie's Restaurant.

Games were played and members exchanged gifts.

Those attending were Mesdames Alice Bohlenstiel, Verlyn Vollmer, Iris Chastain, Margaret Fronabarger, Virginia Sever, Marian Lipscomb, Gladys Markovich, Edna Miller, Dorothy Pulley, Dorothy Cox and Mrs. Teller. Mrs. Margaret Houseman will serve as hostess for the Jan. 21 meeting at the Moose Lodge.

believed persons residing in cities with such a tax, including Granite City, Madison and Venice, will have to pay the county tax.

The board voted to sell $4 million worth of general obligation bonds to Mercantile Trust Co. & Associates, St. Louis, at an interest rate of 6.777 per cent. The money will be used to finance a new Madison County Jail in Edwardsville. Mercantile submitted the lowest interest rates of three firms bidding for the bonds.

An ordinance lowering the dog and cat registration fee from $4 to $2 was approved and will go into effect Jan. 1. The county rabies control program, which received $2 of the fee for each dog registered, will seek support from the county general fund to continue operations.

Wilson Construction Co. of Godfrey was selected as low bidder to install a $98,450 elevator in the county nursing home at Edwardsville. It was noted the price had more than doubled since bids were opened for the work last year. The board had to transfer $19,900 from the contingency fund in order to purchase the elevator. Mitchell Equipment Co. of Mitchell was selected as low bidder for three tractors needed by the highway department. The cost will be $18,732 for the tractors, two of which have mowers and side cutting bars. One trade-in is included in the price.

The board agreed to advertise for bids for 23 new sheriff's department cars, for bids to overhaul locks at the present county jail and for bids to install a new elevator at the courthouse. Bids also are to be sought for a tractor, dump truck and mower for the parks and recreation department and to paint the exterior of the county museum.

A salary of $23,500 for the county superintendent of highways was approved as was a $2,000 expense allowance. Lester L. Miller is acting superintendent of highways.

He was approved as the county's agent for obtaining federal financial assistance. All bids for material for the county motor fuel tax maintenance program were rejected as being too high and the board agreed to readvertise in the spring for the materials.

A five-year long range highway plan was approved which includes completion of Maryville Road from Pontoon Road to Route 162.

The board approved a $205,411 final payment to IBM Corp. for data processing equipment. The approval followed lengthy discussion whether the money should be retained, pending the outcome of a court case the county has filed against IBM. The county is attempting to collect personal property tax from 1967 to the present for equipment IBM is keeping at the Granite City Army Installation. The court is to decide if the property should be tax-free since it is on government land.

Board member Dan Partney of Granite City had suggested the final payment be withheld, but the state's attorney said the board had an obligation to pay the bill.

The board granted the Board of Review a 20 day extension to complete its hearings on appeal cases. The extension must be approved by the Department of Local Government Affairs of the state before action taken during that period can be official.

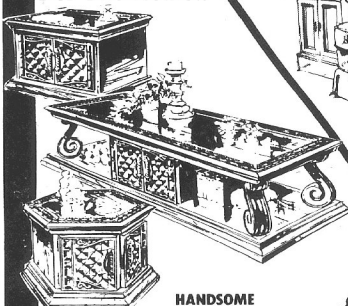

R. C. Sheffield & Co., certified public auditors, were retained to conduct the annual audit of the county's accounts.

Gen. Goodpaster ends 40-year military career

General Andrew Jackson Goodpaster, former supreme commander of all NATO forces in Europe and staff secretary to two U.S. presidents, retired this week from the United States Army in which he served the past 40 years.

The distinguished Granite Cityan who retired from active duty Tuesday in formal ceremonies at Fort Myer, Va., heard Defense Secretary James R. Schlesinger commend his actions in maintaining and strengthening NATO during the last five years when the Western allies were tempted "to go our own separate ways" under the influence of détente with the Soviet Union.

"With his skill, tact and wisdom, he had held our alliance together," Schlesinger said. "Europe has remained secure and at peace," the defense secretary continued.

and "more of a constructive nature" has been accomplished in NATO in the last five years than in the previous 10.

The tall, white-haired general officer, now 59, stood militarily erect during the 40-minute ceremony.

Four Army stars gleamed on his shoulders and five rows of service ribbons reflected a career studied with significant achievements on the battlefields of North Africa and Italy and in his peacetime assignments.

Gen. Goodpaster recalled an evening at his family's home in Granite City 40 years ago this month, when a young congressional assistant named Mel Price drove to the home to announce young Goodpaster's appointment to West Point as an Army cadet the following September.

He said the news brought by Price, now the U. S.

representative from this district, "opened a wonderful life."

In a strong steady voice, the staff officer spoke of his "appreciation and retrospection" about a career that took him from Granite City to West Point to North Africa and Italy; to Princeton University for three graduate degrees; to ranking staff positions in Washington, D. C.; to the White House; to Dwight D. Eisenhower as staff secretary; to Vietnam; and to NATO Headquarters in Brussels, where he has been succeeded by Gen. Alexander M. Haig Jr.

Duty, honor, country—they have been noble guidelines," the general said. "The military forces have served their country well. I have been proud to be a part of them."

He said the news brought by Price, now the U. S.

representative from this district, "opened a wonderful life."

Silver Star, Distinguished Service Cross and Legion of Merit with Oak Leaf Cluster, among other decorations, Gen. Goodpaster was awarded the Distinguished Service medals of the Air Force, the Navy and the Army at the retirement ceremony.

"His NATO command was characterized by absolute devotion to duty, unwavering dedication to the highest principles of military statesmanship and complete loyalty and integrity," the Army citation stated.

Schlesinger read a letter from President Ford saluting Gen. Goodpaster for his "exemplary leadership and managerial skills."

"Our national security is stronger for your efforts," President Ford told the general.

A graduate of Granite City High School, Gen. Goodpaster attended McKendree College at Lebanon from 1931 to 1933 when he was appointed to the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y. He graduated from the academy in 1938 and entered the Army Corps of Engineers with assignment to Panama.

Gen. Goodpaster helped to organize NATO (North Atlantic Treaty Organization) about 25 years ago. During the early 1950s, the staff officer became close to Gen. Eisenhower and left NATO upon appointment by the latter as presidential staff secretary.

He served briefly in the same capacity as Deputy Defense Secretary William P. Clements Jr.; dozens of the general's classmates at West Point and other friends were present at the ceremony.

Gen. Goodpaster moved to the top not only in the U. S. Army and as supreme commander of all NATO forces in Europe, but in the respect and admiration of the highest statesmen of his country and those with whom he served throughout his 40 years.

RUNAWAY SURRENDERS
A runaway 14-year-old girl from Venice, Calif., surrendered to police at 2:15 p.m. Wednesday at St. Louis.

Another girl, 15, who ran away with the 14-year-old was apprehended by Granite City police. Both girls are at the Madison County Detention Home and will be returned to California.

PROMISING TO TIGHTEN
Operations of the Illinois State Fair Agency, Supl. Paul King acknowledged Wednesday that the agency has bills for nearly $11 million more than legislators authorized it to spend. He said extensive building repairs were necessary.

ILLINOIS CONTROLLER
George Lindberg said Wednesday the state could run dangerously short of money in the next 18 months unless it raises taxes or cuts spending or does both.

INVESTIGATORS said this week that some Illinois legislators have awarded thousands of dollars worth of scholarships to their own children and the children of political friends, instead of aiding the needy. Each can send up to eight persons a year to a state college or university at the state's expense, without specific requirements on need or scholastic ability.

Governor Dan Walker said Tuesday the state will not buy a new $900,000 turbo-prop jet airplane even though "in normal times it would have been routine to update the state's aircraft fleet." He has accused the General Assembly of overspending.

The Legislative Advisory Committee on Public Aid voted Tuesday to seek an audit on whether 64 new Public Aid department employees are performing work which helps the department. They were transferred to that payroll in July after legislators had funds for them at the Governor's Office of Human Resources, Office of Collective Bargaining, Office of Special Investigations and Illinois Information Service.

General Motors production cutbacks will boost to 132,000 the number of its hourly workers on index auto and temporary layoffs in January through March. The latest move Wednesday adds 16,000, none in the St. Louis area—to those already indefinitely furloughed (totaling 91,000); temporary layoffs total 41,000.

U. S. Steel will explain in writing by Friday why it announced an eight per cent price hike on some products Monday. President Gerald R. Ford, awaiting the statement, said he hopes "other steel companies forces in Vietnam, but was recalled in December 1968 at President Nixon's request to serve as his advisor on National Security Council procedures and military policy questions during the pre-inaugural transition period.

At the rigidly formal retirement ceremony, an Army band played and troops from the Army, Marines, Navy, Air Force and Coast Guard stood at respectful attention.

The chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the four service chiefs; the Deputy Defense Secretary William P. Clements Jr.; dozens of the general's classmates at West Point and other friends were present at the ceremony.

Gen. Goodpaster moved to the top not only in the U. S. Army and as supreme commander of all NATO forces in Europe, but in the respect and admiration of the highest statesmen of his country and those with whom he served throughout his 40 years.

State trooper hurt in crash

Illinois State Police Trooper Edward R. Allen, 47, of 101 Warsaw Lane, was injured when his state police squad car and the auto of Gordon Huddeleston, 3801 Lake Drive, Ponton Beach, collided at Route 111 and Duane Drive in Ponton Beach at 1:20 a.m. Tuesday.

Huddeleston was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol, failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident and failure to yield the right-of-way.

Allen alleges the squad car was southbound on Route 111 and Huddeleston's northbound car turned left in front of the police car.

Election filing opens Monday

The filing period for the April 1 Granite City election will open Monday in what is expected to be a rush of candidates seeking top positions on the separate ballots in each of the city's seven wards.

A field of 21 potential candidates, 18 of them seeking the seven aldermanic posts and three for the office of city street superintendent, have obtained nomination petition forms during the past several weeks.

Petitions will be accepted by City Clerk Robert Stevens when his office opens at 8 a.m. Monday. The filing period will continue from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily at Stevens' office through Jan. 27.

Latest entries in the aldermanic races who obtained petition forms early this week are Howard Harper, 2905 Washington Ave., as a candidate for alderman in Ward Two, and Paul Worthen, 37 Janday Lane, as a candidate for alderman of the Seventh Ward.

Meanwhile, Stevens announced that his office will have the responsibility of notifying candidates who file of their requirements under the Campaign Disclosure Act which becomes effective Jan. 1.

Stevens attended two full-day seminars at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Monday and Tuesday to obtain details of the new law. The seminars were conducted by the State Board of Elections which will provide information brochures and disclosure forms for candidates who file in the upcoming city and village elections.

Stevens said that after the law becomes effective he will be required to mail information forms to all candidates within two days after they file nominating petitions. The candidates must determine if they are required to file, and if so, fill out the forms and file them with the county clerk's office. The disclosure forms are not filed with his office, Stevens explained.

On the basis of petition forms circulated during past weeks, opposition for aldermanic posts can be expected in five of the city's seven aldermanic wards with the largest number of candidates in the Seventh Ward where Alderman Ed Daves is now the incumbent.

Five persons, including Daves, have obtained petition forms as candidates in that ward. In addition to Daves are Don Partney Jr., Daniel Sparks, Frank Veseli and Worthen.

The only incumbent alderman who may be unopposed are Walter Norn in Ward Five and Gerald Parnley in Ward Six. Stevens' office reported no nominating petition forms were requested for those wards except by Norn and Parnley.

Four persons obtained petitions as candidates for aldermen in the Third Ward where Sam Whitmer is the incumbent alderman. The others obtaining petitions are Norman Alexander, Melvin "Red" Hill and Harper.

Others reported to be circulating petitions in preparation for filing include: Ward One, Everett Morley, incumbent; Bernard "Bud" Jenkins and James C. Stuart; Ward Three, Clyde Boyd, incumbent, and Chris Von Nida; Ward Four, Claude Green, incumbent, and Warren Decatur.

Opposition to incumbent Street Superintendent Lionel Portell also is indicated in circulation of petitions by two other men, Mac Warfield and Tom Nesbit.

Granite City voters will elect one alderman in each of the seven wards, and one street superintendent in the April 1 balloting.

Meanwhile, Gary Novich, 921

Lee Ave., Madison, became the first person to announce his candidacy in the city and village elections to be held April 15 in Madison, Venice and Pontoon Beach.

Novich obtained nomination petition forms at Madison as a candidate for alderman of the Third Ward there. That post is vacant due to the death of Stanley Kaskowski in March 1973. Novich is a former recreation director at Madison.

Madison will elect four aldermen and Pontoon Beach will elect a mayor, village clerk and three trustees in the April 15 balloting.

The filing period for those elections will open Jan. 6 and continue through Feb. 10, followed by a five-day withdrawal.

Holiday schedule at park ice rink

Extra skating sessions are planned at the Wilson Park ice rink during the holiday period, Harold Brown, park superintendent, announced today.

Skating periods will be held from 1 to 3:30 p.m. Monday and Tuesday and from 7:30 to 10 p.m. Wednesday (Christmas Day).

The remaining schedule shows skating periods listed as follows:

Thursday and Friday, Dec. 26 and Dec. 27—1 to 3:30 p.m. and 7:30 to 10 p.m.
Saturday, Dec. 28—1 to 3:30 p.m. and 7 to 9:30 p.m.
Sunday, Dec. 29—1 to 3:30 p.m.; 6 to 8:30 p.m. and 8:30 to 11 p.m. (adults only).

Monday, Dec. 30—1 to 3:30 p.m.
Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Dec. 31 to Jan. 3—1 to 3:30 p.m. and 7:30 to 10 p.m.
Saturday, Jan. 4—1 to 3:30 p.m. and 7 to 9:30 p.m.
Sunday, Jan. 5—1 to 3:30 p.m.; 6 to 8:30 p.m. and 8:30 to 11 p.m. (adults only).

LOOT PICKUP TRUCK

Items worth $320 were stolen from the pickup truck of Ron Jarrett, 2232 Orville Ave., it was reported at 4:15 p.m. Tuesday. Taken were a citizens' band radio, an amplifier, a revolver and binoculars. The left wing vent window was broken.

Dismisses suit in fatal shooting

A law suit for $45,000 damages stemming from a fatal shooting in Madison, and naming Clarence Tom York as defendant, has been dismissed in Circuit Court at Edwardsville because of an out-of-court settlement.

Judge William L. Beatty ruled to dismiss the suit filed by Joseph C. Piner Jr., in behalf of the estate of his late son, Joseph C. Piner Jr., when attorneys for both parties announced a financial settlement had been made.

The complaint in the proceedings alleged that Piner suffered loss of support, comforts, expenses and underwent mental stress after his son was shot fatally in Buzz's Tavern, 1224 Madison Ave., on March 26, 1972. The youth was a patron in the tavern at the time of the shooting.

Hurt on 151

A Florissant, Mo., couple was injured when their car and the tractor-trailer of Ray Christensen Jr., Lowell, Ind., collided at Highway 151 and Rock Road at 2:10 p.m. Tuesday. Christensen was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way.

Taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital were the driver, Mrs. Virginia Azar, 46, and Joseph Azar, 49. After impact their auto skidded backward and down a steep embankment.

Mrs. Azar was treated for injuries to her neck and stomach. Mr. Azar suffered pain to his back and head. X-rays were taken and both were released.

Singing Angels to go caroling

For the fourth year Explorers Post 10-4's "Singing Angels" will go Christmas caroling in Madison Monday from 7 p.m. until 9 p.m.

Donations received by the Explorers will be used to buy food for local needy families. The group will practice on Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. in the Madison Recreation Center, Seventh and Lee streets, Madison.

The Explorers will hold their annual Christmas party Sunday evening at the Madison Recreation Center, beginning at 8 p.m.

Thompson, Lindberg rising stars of Illinois Republicans

By KEN WATSON
Press-Record
Springfield Bureau
Illinois Republicans hoping for a big comeback in 1978 after this year's humiliating defeat are giving increased attention to two "new faces" as possible candidates for governor. They are U.S. Attorney James R. Thompson, 38, of Chicago and State Comptroller George W. Lindberg, 42, of Crystal Lake.

At the Statehouse, majority opinion heavily predicts Atty. Gen. William J. Scott, 48, as the 1976 foe of Democratic Gov. Daniel Walker. But it still is far too early to rule out other possibilities. No one is definitely sure that Scott will run for governor and automatically receive the nomination. In politics, things can always change.

Meanwhile, GOP leaders are exploring other options and Thompson and Lindberg are prominently among them. Thompson during his three years as federal prosecutor in Chicago has already won a tremendous reputation in that area for his convictions of such prominent political figures as former Governor Otto Kerner, former Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett and Chicago Alderman Thomas Keane, for years a top political and government associate of Mayor

Richard J. Daley. Thompson, who rejected overtures that he run for mayor against Daley next year, is known to be thinking seriously about the governor's race. Last week he disclosed he had turned down a high-level Justice Department appointment in Washington as assistant U.S. attorney general supervising criminal prosecutions across the nation. He explained he feels his present job in Chicago is "more exciting."

Although insisting that politics is not on his mind at present, Thompson did note the significance of retaining a residence in Illinois. His parents live in Oak Park, a Chicago suburb, and Thompson conceded that "if I were going into politics as a career, it would be the wisest thing to stay here."

A major handicap for Thompson in any 1978 run against Walker is that, while well-known in the Chicago area, his name is largely unfamiliar Downstate. Although a Chicagoan, Walker has carefully cultivated Downstate and is conceded a popularity rare for a Chicago governor in office less than two years. However, it is noted that lack of early Downstate identity was no obstacle to successful campaigns for governor by two previous Republicans who built their political reputations through their records as federal prosecutors in Chicago. Dwight Green in 1940 and Richard B. Ogilvie in 1968.

A strong factor going for Thompson would be his background as a convict of corrupt officials in an era when American voters are eagerly seeking candidates noted for high integrity and with a record of governmental reform. In addition to being considered as a relatively "new face" in politics, Lindberg also has the benefit of having won one state campaign. He defeated Democrat Dean Barringer by 122,642 votes in the House. In 1972, he was the first statewide candidate of either party to disclose his campaign contribution sources. Although today's political skies are dark for Illinois Republicans, the potential of men of the caliber of Thompson and Lindberg offer bright glimmers of hope for the not too distant future.

He has made sense in publicly discussing the state's financial outlook, and has scored political points in such matters as holding up vouchers for State Fair payments pending legal clarification of the status of the acting manager. Lindberg, extremely knowledgeable in state government, has been one of the most effective GOP critics of Walker administration policies. Before being elected comptroller, he had an impressive record after three terms in the House. In 1972, he was the first statewide candidate of either party to disclose his campaign contribution sources. Although today's political skies are dark for Illinois Republicans, the potential of men of the caliber of Thompson and Lindberg offer bright glimmers of hope for the not too distant future.

Urbana man to head business development

Gov. Dan Walker on Tuesday appointed Joseph P. Pisciotte, of Urbana, as director of the Department of Business and Economic Development.

As associate professor of government, he will assume his new duties early next month following completion of the academic semester at the University of Illinois.

Pisciotte previously served as executive director of the 1969-70 Constitutional Convention.

Theodore N. Silverman, who has been serving as acting director since July 19, 1974, will return to his former post as deputy director in charge of international trade.

Gov. Walker also named Sidney M. Marder, of Peru, Ill., as director of the department's new Energy Development Program. Marder, a member of the Illinois Pollution Control Board since August 1973, will take over his new duties Jan. 1.

The Department of Business and Economic Development was designated as the action agency for the state's new energy development program under legislation passed last spring and signed into law by Gov. Walker.

License free until Feb. 15

Madison motor vehicle licenses again will be issued free to residents, provided they pick them up before Saturday, Feb. 15, according to Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk.

The auto, truck and motorcycle stickers are available at the City Comptroller's office, 1529 Third St., Madison, weekdays between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

When picking up the city vehicle license, persons must bring with them the 1975 vehicle registration cards.

After Feb. 15, a charge of $5 for autos and $4 for motorcycles will be charged.

Fees for trucks range from $10 to $25 depending on the size of the truck.

Suit on State Fair paychecks

Paul King, acting superintendent of the Illinois State Fair, on Wednesday filed suit in Sangamon County Circuit Court to compel Comptroller George W. Lindberg to pay 87 State Fair employees and to honor other outstanding State Fair vouchers signed by King.

State Fair employees missed one paycheck on Dec. 13 and may miss a second paycheck on Dec. 27 unless the court orders Lindberg to issue the paychecks.

King's status is being challenged; he has not been confirmed by the legislature.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

Madison calls new bridge sale bids

By WALTER STRANGE
Press-Record Staff Writer
The Madison City Council, passed a resolution Tuesday night to reject and return all bids should any be received for the purchase of the Chain of Rocks Bridge by Dec. 21.

The council passed another resolution to re-advertise for new bids to be submitted by Feb. 1. Several prospective buyers have expressed interest in the purchase of the bridge, but no bids have yet been received, Mayor Mike Sasyk said.

"I think it is in the best interest of everyone that the new bid date be set. It will allow anyone seriously interested ample time to meet the requirements," Sasyk said.

The bridge spans the Mississippi River from Couteau Township to St. Louis County north of St. Louis. The sale will be limited to the bridge superstructure, all supporting structures, pilings and accessory objects.

Real estate owned by the city on which the bridge is built, or adjacent to the bridge, will not be included in the sale. The bidder must comply with and obtain approval and necessary permits from the U. S. Coast Guard, Army Corps of Engineers and other government agencies. The sale is subject to the approval of government agencies concerned.

Bids must be accompanied by a 10 per cent deposit upon awarding of a contract the successful bidder has 180 days to furnish the city all permits, requirements and approvals necessary. The council reserves the right to reject all bids.

The council approved, on a motion by Alderman John Haynes and seconded by Christ Cosloff, participation with Granite City, Venice Pontoon Beach and Belleville Area College in what is known as a Senior Aid Budget.

The project will furnish jobs for about 60 citizens in the area over the age of 55, and will go into effect July 1975.

Clinton leaders favor nuclear power project

Both the Clinton, Ill., City Council and the board of the Clinton Chamber of Commerce have unanimously passed resolutions endorsing Illinois Power Company plans to construct a 1,900,000-kilowatt nuclear generating plant east of Clinton.

The City Council acted Monday night, and the Chamber of Commerce last week. Both resolutions urge prompt action by governmental regulatory agencies in the granting of necessary licenses and permits.

The company recently announced a one-year deferment in its plans because of delays in obtaining necessary permits.

The Illinois Commerce Commission has granted a certificate of convenience and necessity for the plant, but other permits have been delayed. Prime among these is the construction permit by the federal Atomic Energy Commission.

The AEC has issued its final environmental report on the plan, but no hearing has yet been set on the construction permit, pending approval of cooling lake plans by the federal and state Environmental Protection Agency.

A 5,000-acre cooling lake created by damming two small streams is in the plan. Under the delayed planning, IP hopes to have the first of two 950,000-kilowatt units completed by 1981.

The actions by the Clinton groups backing the plan cited a need for increased electrical energy in Illinois, recreational advantages for the state, and an increased tax base for governmental units in DeWitt County.

Park to issue IDs Tuesday
The Granite City Park District will issue identification cards to residents from 9 to 11 a.m. Tuesday at the Wilson Park ice rink.

The plasticized cards, costing 75 cents each, enable the bearer to take part in park sponsored programs, including ice skating, at reduced rates. Proof of residency is required from ID applicants.

with all the mayors this morning," Mayor Sasyk told the council. "We agreed that the cost to the cities, in our case $7,088, would come out of the federal Community Development funds and the rest of the money from another federal grant. In effect it will not cost us anything to participate and will furnish needed jobs for some of our older citizens who still are very capable in many areas." The mayor announced that Explorer Post 104 and the Madison Police department will hold a "Drug Awareness Program" for adults, only at the Madison Recreation Center on Jan. 15, beginning at 7:30 p.m. "We recently had a meeting with the school board, administrators, council members and concerned parents to discuss curbing the drug problem in our city and taking steps to prevent it from increasing," Sasyk said. "I think we should encourage the adults in our community to become better acquainted with this problem and attend this meeting." Bids were opened for two unmarked police cars, one for Madison and one for Venice, which are being made available through a federal grant that established a joint detective division between the two cities. Submitting bids were Broadhead Motor Co., $2,750 for two model LTDs and $7,850 for two Torino; Merolis Chevrolet $8,888 for two Impalas; Johnny Lott Chevrolet, $8,175 for two Bel Airs; and Miron Buick Co., $8,050 for two Apollo Skylarks. The bids were referred to the city purchasing committee and Chief of Police Frank Dutko for further study. The council authorized Civilian Defense Director Casimir Krakowicki to contact CARE and donate to them 1,280 pounds of canned biscuits and 280 pounds of carbohydrate supplement similar to hard candy. The foodstuffs were acquired by the city in 1962 and the National Civil Defense office has authorized disposing of them. Sasyk called to the council's attention that the Zoning Board will hold a meeting at 1 p.m. Saturday in the City Hall. The council voted to meet at 7 p.m. Monday, Dec. 23. City Comptroller Al Hudzik will explain new campaign disclosure laws.

Inventory value change a factor in 'break even' year for Smith

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD
Thurs., Dec. 19, 1974 Page 23

Directors of A. O. Smith Corporation decided Monday at Milwaukee to adopt the last-in, first-out (LIFO) method for valuing the majority of domestic inventories, it was announced by L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer. The change in inventory valuation method, which improves cash flow by more accurately matching current costs with revenues, will cause an estimated reduction in after-tax profits of about $8.5 million, or $1.74 per share, for the year as a whole. The net result of this, Smith said, is that the company will report earnings of close to break even, since profits for 1974 had been estimated at about $8.5 million, or $1.74 per share prior to the adoption of LIFO. In 1973, A. O. Smith had profits of $15,162,000, or $3.08 per share. Fourth-quarter profits would have been approximately $4.3 million, or 88 cents per share, before making the change to LIFO, with the exact effect of the inventory valuation change on the fourth quarter not yet determined. In the fourth quarter of 1973, the company earned $3,421,000, or 70 cents per share. Smith estimated sales for 1974 will be about $566,000,000, compared with sales a year ago of $610,499,000. Sales in the fourth quarter are expected to be approximately $151,000,000, compared with $148,727,000 in 1973. Aside from the impact of LIFO, Smith said the principal reasons for lower sales and earnings in 1974 were the energy crisis, which affected the Automotive Division in the early part of the year, inflation which caused a cost-price squeeze in all operating units, and the recession in the late part of the year.

During the fourth quarter, the Automotive Division, which makes automobile and truck frames, operated at near-capacity levels, despite the decline in new car sales. This occurred, Smith said, because most division products are used in the intermediate and larger cars, which continued to sell relatively well, and because demand for truck components continued strong.

He said there was some slowing of orders for automobile parts in December, and that he anticipates further cutbacks after the first of the year. Layoffs were announced this month by the auto frame plant in Granite City. In the fourth quarter, the slowdown in new housing starts began to affect the company's residential water heating manufacturing operation, resulting in substantial production cutbacks, Smith said.

Also, sales of electric motors in the fourth quarter will be well below a year ago because of a slowing of demand for the air conditioning products which use A. O. Smith motors.

Sales increases will be recorded in the fourth quarter by the company's Meter Systems Division. A. O. Smith Harvestore Products, Inc., a subsidiary, and the two operating divisions of A. O. Smith-Inland Inc., affiliate.

A. O. Smith, with its subsidiaries, is a widely diversified manufacturer of electric motors, meter systems, auto and truck frames, agricultural feed storage and handling systems, water heater equipment, elevators and other products.

4 hurt at 151 and W. Pontoon

Four persons were injured when the autos of Mrs. Florence Griffith, 41, Spanish Lake, Mo., and Grace Pope, 64, Coffeen, collided on Route 151 and West Pontoon Road at 5:40 p.m. Tuesday.

Taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital were the drivers and Miss Tamara Griffith, 13, Spanish Lake, a passenger of Mrs. Griffith's auto, and Carol Buehner, 67, of Chateau Slough Road.

Mrs. Griffith was treated for injuries to her left arm, left leg and right foot. X-rays were taken and she was released. Miss Griffith, who struck her head on the windshield, also underwent x-rays and was released.

The other two women suffered minor injuries which did not require hospital treatment here, according to officials.

Parking lot crash

The autos of Ronald J. Smith, 2442 Madison Ave., and Donald Johannmeier, 230 Lenox Ave., Mitchell, collided on the parking lot of the K-Mart Store at 7 p.m. yesterday.

Mrs. Victoria Smith, 23, also of 2442 Madison Ave., a passenger in Ronald Smith's car was injured and was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

She was admitted with pain to her abdomen.

DUMBBELLS STOLEN
Dumbbells worth about $250 were stolen from the Spartan Health Spa, 2917 Edwardsville Road, during the past few days, officials were told at 4:15 p.m. yesterday. Taken were 12 dumbbells, a bar and two sets of collars.

Holiday pet adoption clinic

Fluffy white kittens and playful puppies will be among the animals offered to local families at the Christmas pet adoption clinic to be sponsored Saturday by the Quad-City Association for the Protection of Animals (APA).
The pets will be available from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. Saturday at the association's adoption center outside the main entrance to the Granite City Store (Grants) in Nameoki Village Shopping Center.
Should any animals remain unadopted Saturday, the APA members will return to the same location Monday between the same hours, Mrs. Connie Becerra, shelter supervisor, said.
The nominal fees asked from those accepting a pet will be used to help feed the animals under APA care during the coming winter months, Mrs. Becerra explained.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD
Thurs., Dec. 19, 1974 Page 24

She said feeding costs have more than doubled in the past few months. Especially high is food for dogs.
About 25 pounds of dry dog food is used each day at the APA's permanent shelter located on the Granite City Army Installation grounds.
The local humane group receives no outside financial aid with the exception of proceeds made by members from special projects and the small fees sought from those adopting an animal, the officer said.
Medical expenses for immunizations and related care have been funded from the adoption fees in the past.
"Now we need the fees to provide enough food for the animals," Mrs. Becerra stressed.
Several white kittens and young cats are available for adoption, Mrs. Becerra said. She noted that most snow-white cats with blue eyes are nearly always totally deaf, a genetic trait, and need a sheltered home in order to survive.
White kittens with different colored eyes usually have perfect hearing, she explained.
Several long-haired male kittens, about 4 months old, plus a Siamese female, about 9 months old, will be offered Saturday. All animals have received their immunization shots.
A pure Persian neutered male, about 8 years old, a well-cared for pet in excellent condition which apparently strayed from a home, will be placed for adoption at the clinic.
Mrs. Becerra said the animal is "very beautiful" and probably was quite valuable when younger. Attempts to locate its owner have proved futile.
Although the cat is patient with youngsters, the APA prefers to place him in a home without young children or that of a single person. "He will make a very good pet," the supervisor said.

A home for a good-natured, half border (arm) collie is being sought. The male dog, about a year old, is good with children.

Mrs. Becerra said APA members currently are packaging wild bird seed into five pound bags and will offer the seed for sale to the public on Saturday, Dec. 28, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Bellemore Village Shopping Center Mall.

The APA purchased 1,400 pounds of "good quality" seed for resale in five pounds sacks to help alleviate the association's poor financial condition, she said. The seed will be sold at nominal cost.

Difficulty was experienced in finding a location to sell the seed, Mrs. Becerra said, noting that three business firms turned down the APA's request prior to permission being granted to use the Bellemore Village arcade area.

Enrollment gain, new programs at SIUE in '74

An increase in enrollment after four years of decline and approval of the first doctoral degree program highlighted 1974 at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Fall quarter enrollment totaled 11,387, up 177 over the previous fall. The total did not include more than 1,000 students enrolled in extension programs and off-campus masters degree programs offered by SIUE. The enrollment gain was the first since 1970, when an all-time high of 13,700 students registered.

The first doctoral program, an interdisciplinary degree in the instructional process, was approved in November by the Illinois Board of Higher Education, climaxing a five-year effort by SIUE to get a doctoral program under way.

In September the SIUE Board of Trustees approved a joint doctoral program in computer science to be offered by SIUE and Washington University. At year-end the proposal was awaiting approval by the BHE and the Washington University governing board.

Trustees also approved granting of a bachelor of science degree in social work, a specialty certificate in oral pathology to be offered at the SIUE School of Dental Medicine, a doctor of arts degree in physical sciences and a doctor of arts in business. All of these programs are awaiting BHE approval before they can be implemented.

The BHE did approve a bachelor of science degree program in industrial engineering in November.

During the year SIUE began an "Open University" program in which students can earn college credit through home study without having to attend regularly-scheduled classes. Instruction was also begun in a master of science in urban studies program. In cooperation with Sangamon State University in Springfield, the university began offering its specialist program in educational administration.

An Office of Off-Campus Programs was established to direct instructional programs at the new Scott Air Force Base Residence Center and at the cooperative Graduate Center begun on the Greenville College campus.

Trustees voted to establish two archives at SIUE during 1974. Lovejoy Library was designated as a national ragtime and jazz archive, formalizing a student-faculty volunteer effort that has been under way for several years. A sizable collection of ragtime and jazz music, recordings, films and videotapes is already housed in the library. The Southern Illinois Folklore Archive, the only one of its kind in the state, was also established at SIUE. More than 56,000 folklore texts have been collected on campus.

Breaking with tradition, the University offered a series of workshops for older women thinking of going to college now that their families are grown. A special humanities program for senior citizens began in the fall, providing 20 weekly sessions focusing on social and public policy issues affecting the lives of persons over 60 and at least semi-retired.

SIUE was chosen as the headquarters for a new mid-Illinois computer cooperative formed by five state universities. The cooperative will provide computer technology on a shared basis at several public and private universities in central Illinois.

The mass communications department at SIUE received an Emmy award and a special citation from the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences for "excellence, innovation and contributions to the growth of the medium."

The award was for Lostine, a program recorded on videotape at the University in March for worldwide distribution by the National Center for Experiments in Television.

The SIUE Concert Chorus toured Europe and won the eleventh annual choral competition in Spittal, Austria. On the way home the group sang at the Kennedy Center in Washington.

An All-American Honor Ring was awarded to the Daily Aleste, published by SIUE students. That is the highest ranking given to college newspapers by Associated Collegiate Press.

During 1974, SIUE conferred 2,472 graduate and undergraduate degrees. For the first time, a student graduated with a perfect 5-point grade average. The top scholar was Cynthia Scoggins of Belleville, a French major.

The energy crisis, double-digit inflation and a third consecutive year of operating budget cuts spurred economy measures on campus. Thermostats were lowered and light levels were cut to reduce consumption of natural gas and electricity. Subcompact automobiles were purchased as replacements in the SIUE vehicle fleet. SIUE had requested $34,880,000 in state-appropriated funds for operational expenses for the year which began July 1, but received $29,211,800.

NEW HOUSING FOR STUDENTS—An aerial view of Tower Lake II, the new apartment housing complex for students on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, shows completed units in the foreground and other units under construction. Nineteen of 32 new buildings were occupied during 1974. The project is scheduled for completion in March, 1975, providing housing for 1,000 additional students.

Some improvements were made in the University physical plant. Nineteen of 32 new buildings in a student housing addition at Tower Lake were completed during the year. Others will be ready in the spring of 1975. A total of $145,870 in improvements to the Tower Lake recreation area were completed, and the Delyte W. Morris Bicycle Way, linking SIUE and Edwardsville, was dedicated. The BHE approved construction of a $2 million advanced waste treatment and operator training facility. At year-end construction was 50 per cent complete on two new classroom buildings.

The first affirmative action officer for women at SIUE was named as the University continued efforts to correct inequities and discrimination. A written affirmative action plan was developed as required by the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

St. John Lutheran programs

Christmas Eve will be celebrated at St. John Lutheran Church, St. Clair and Dale avenues, with a worship service at 7 p.m. Tuesday, when Sunday school pupils will participate in a program, entitled "Rise, Shine For Your Light Has Come," according to the pastor, the Rev. Samuel Boda.

As the news of Christmas is pictured on a screen through a color filmstrip and slides, the children will recite descriptive verses and the congregation will join in singing appropriate Christmas hymns and carols, the minister said.

Members of the confirmation classes in costume will portray the first nativity scene. Mrs. Phyllis Jarabak will preside at the organ and Seminarian Godfrey Jarabak will deliver the Christmas message.

The Rev. Boda will present the Christmas sermon at a festival service at 9 a.m. Christmas Day. Serving as trumpeter will be John T. Severine Sr.

A program of gospel music was presented at the Cedar View General Baptist Church Sunday afternoon by the Spiritual Gospel Singing Convention. The featured group was the Melody Masters. Others participating were the Singing Chantmans, the Chapelettes and Mrs. Betty York.

MAJOR SURGERY
Mrs. Bonnie Collins of Central Lane has returned from St. John's Mercy Hospital, where she had major surgery.

CANDLELIGHT PROGRAM
A "sunshine" rally program was presented during the weekend at the Cedar View Church by the Maranatha singers in a candlelight setting. Churches of the Illinois-Missouri Association were represented. Following the program, refreshments of Christmas cookies, coffee and punch were served.

Pack 22 cubs deliver gifts

Sixty-five small decorated baskets filled with candy were delivered this week by eight Cub Scouts to residents at the Colonades Nursing Home.

The seasonal gifts were made by the boys who are members of Den 3, Cub Pack 22, sponsored by Frohardt PTA.

Accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Cloree Grizzard, the cubs sang Christmas carols and presented each person with a carol song book in addition to the baskets.

Cubs attending were Bobby McClew, Corey McConnell, David Briggs, Freddy Trester, Richard Grizzard, Wynn Buenger, Jeff Hendon and Mike Grizzard. Assisting the den leader was Mrs. Janice Grizzard.

MR. AND MRS. RICARDO BUCKINGHAM. They were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beger of Collinsville. The bride is the former Miss Denise Lehmkuhl, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lehmkuhl, 22 Meadowlark Court.

Denise Lehmkuhl weds Ricardo L. Buckingham

The wedding of Miss Denise Lehmkuhl and Ricardo L. Buckingham was solemnized at an evening ceremony on Dec. 7 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beger, 1042 Lafayette Court, Collinsville.

Miss Jo Ann Aerne presided at the organ and played "A Time For Us," "Time in a Bottle" and "Somewhere My Love."

Parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lehmkuhl, reside at 22 Meadowlark Court. The groom is a son of Rex Buckingham of Edwardsville and Mrs. Juanita Spray, 2335 Lincoln Ave.

For her wedding, the former Miss Lehmkuhl chose an A-line gown fashioned in soft white satin. Venice lace formed a high ruff at the neckline and accented the Empire bodice and full bishop sleeves.

Matching lace edged the long skirt and chapel train. She wore a Juliet cap to hold in place her long mantilla veil and she held a cascade of white, pink and blue carnations and baby's breath festooned with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Theresa Watkins, a sister of the bride, served as matron of honor.

She wore a formal length dress of powder blue chiffon featuring a high Victorian neckline. The full skirt was enhanced with lace to create an apron effect.

Her flowers were blue and white carnations and baby's breath.

Michael Haar attended the groom as best man.

Mrs. Lehmkuhl, mother of the bride, selected a long gown of blue and green floral print chiffon over taffeta. She wore a long sleeved coat and a green carnation corsage.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Spray, was attired in an apricot polyester frock lavishly accented with gold braid at the V-neckline and edging the long, full sleeves. She wore a yellow carnation corsage.

newly married couple at a reception at the Granite City Moose Hall immediately following the service.

Both young people graduated from Granite City High School. The bride is employed at Leader's Department store and her husband works at Granite City Steel.

They are now residing in Granite City following a wedding trip to the Missouri Ozarks.

Eta Chapter holds candlelight dinner

The history of Phi Tau Omega Sorority was presented by Miss Hilda Schroeder to highlight the annual Christmas party of Eta Chapter held Monday night at the Top of the Tower Restaurant in St. Louis County.

Tiny red boots and "Snoopy" characters were made by the chapter officers into holiday pins and decorated the tables for the candlelight dinner served in the restaurant's Gold Room.

Hostesses for the event were Miss Betty Krug, Miss Mary Hassler and Mesdames Millie Greathouse, Lois Hodge, Evelyn Todd, Shirley Morgan, Mary Evalyne Yenko and Mary Lou Richardson.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Lorraine Butler, Mrs. Lois Hodge and Mrs. Evelyn Todd. A special award was presented to Miss Krug.

Also attending the social evening were Misses Eunice Hutscher, Dolores Sheridan and Kathryn Weddell.

Mrs. Georgiana VanBuskirk and Mrs. Gladys Waggoner.

A business meeting of the chapter is set for Wednesday, Jan. 8, at the Elks Club.

CALLING ALL HOME MAKERS

Brought To You By Mrs. Carol

HAVE YOU CONSIDERED FURNITURE IN HALLWAYS?

Many people concentrate on furnishing the rooms in their home, but they forget all about the hallways between the rooms — and yet, even if you have small halls and limited space — this is still one area that has great decorative possibilities and can add a wonderful touch to the overall appearance of your home.

First, let's discuss those who have a good-sized upstairs or downstairs hall, and then we'll talk about homes that have small hallways. In either case, you'll want to eliminate a cold, bare look to halls that too many homes have.

If you have room, you might consider an attractive table with a lamp to add warmth and light to hallways. You might also consider a chest for both improving the appearance of the hall and adding some storage space. One home we saw recently used bookshelves in the hall.

For smaller hallways, as well as bigger ones, you could add a mirror which creates a feeling of more space as well as reflecting colors and light from adjoining rooms, unifying your decorating scheme. If you don't have a table and lamp room for a table and lamp in a hallway, you can use light in wall sconces. Decorative clocks can also be a useful addition to halls.

For lots more ideas, and furnishings of good value for all rooms in your home, stop in and browse here. There's no obligation.

WHERE ECONOMY ORIGINATES

THANK YOU MR. PRESIDENT OPERATION AWARE.

In a letter to A&P President Ford wrote: "Your effort to hold the line on prices and help consumers with an early warning system is a real contribution to fighting inflation. Americans need the reassurance that such a program offers. It will give them hope that inflation can be conquered if we all work toward that goal. Stabilizing the American economy will take time. But it can be done if each one does what he can. A&P is to be congratulated on its program. Maybe we started something. Other food stores have followed A&P with programs of their own. And we invite all our competitors to do the same. We are trying to win a fight against inflation and inflation is everybody's battle. Here are the first steps we are taking to fight it."

1. AN EARLY WARNING SYSTEM ON PRICE INCREASES: THE AWARE LIST.

Every week we will voluntarily post a list of price increases such as those received from manufacturers a full seven days before we actually change our price. That gives you one week to purchase at the old price — subject, of course, to product availability. Two labels find "Be Aware" shelf tags on many frequently bought items, with the day of the price increase right on the tag. Of course, the A&P label won't include perishables like meat, eggs or fresh fruit and vegetables, where markets fluctuate daily; items controlled by law or advertised specials. So before you plan your next week's shopping list, check this week's Aware List.

2. A PRICE FREEZE ON A&P PRIVATE LABELS.

A&P voluntarily has put a ceiling on over 1000 A&P Private Label products (smaller stores may not carry all of these items, but a list is available in all stores.) That means prices will go no higher at least until the end of the year, on many products that you use every day — bread, cheese, pasta, coffee, non-fat dry milk, frozen potatoes, rice, tuna fish, fruit cocktail, frozen dinners and canned peas and corn. Advertisers' specials below the freeze price will still be offered. We've put the freeze on our private labels because they represent the best values in our stores. And we'll hold down the price, even if our ingredient costs go up.

3. OUR 13 POINT CONSUMER PROTECTION POLICY.

A&P GRADE 'A' BUTTER BASTED TURKEYS

What is a BUTTER BASTED TURKEY?
As the turkey roasts, the creamy butter basting mixture, which has been added, mingles with the natural juices, yields this delicious Grade 'A' turkey and bastes through the bird. It will baste the outside of the bird.

35 children trim library tree

For the past seven years, youngsters who frequently use the Madison Public Library have gathered at the building each December to participate in an old fashioned tree trimming project.

Mrs. Louise Lewis, head librarian, started the program seven years ago when she discovered that most children had no idea what an old fashioned Christmas tree looked like.

"Each year the youngsters take a special delight in stringing popcorn, making paper chains and sprinkling sparkles on mobiles to hang on the tree," she said.

The children taking part in the tree trimming session must first make the ornaments themselves. Mrs. Lewis explained. None may be purchased, she pointed out.

The decorated tree will remain on display at the Madison Library throughout December. A total of 35 youngsters were responsible for decorating the tree this Christmas.

Mrs. Lewis said a bulletin board display at the library features books on Christmas decorating ideas, recipes, stories and favorite seasonal songs.

Also available to parents without charge are booklets concerning toy safety prepared by the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the library officer said.

BETROTHED. Miss Susan E. Russell and her fiancé, Aviation Apprentice Dennis R. Bernaia, U. S. Navy. Their engagement is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Russell, 1848 Spring Ave.

Christmas services at 1st Pentecostal

Christmas programs will be presented Sunday at both the morning and evening services at the First United Pentecostal Church, 2452 Pontoon Road, the Rev. Kenneth Reeves, pastor, announced today.

The teenage and adult choir will sing special selections at the 10:30 a.m. and 6 p.m. services. Children from the 6-to-12-year-old department and young adults, 13 to 19 years will participate in a play and give recitations, keeping with the seasonal observance.

The Rev. Reeves said the teenage choir also will sing in a special program at 7:30 p.m. on Christmas Eve.

Hosts Terrace club at brunch

Yuletide decorations created a festive atmosphere at the home of Mrs. Tomea Kirchoff, 48 Janday Lane, where a holiday brunch was held last week for members of the Terrace Garden Club.

A basket of fruit and a tray of homemade cookies were prepared for delivery to residents at the Colonial Haven Nursing Home. Taking the treats to the facility were Mrs. June Cushman, president, and Mrs. Myrtle Hickman.

Gifts were exchanged and the remainder of the time was spent socially.

Others present were Mesdames Edie Donjoian, Margaret Kirchoff, Nettie Miner, Ann Reznack and Thelma Ruppel.

Granite 650 fetes Harry McClintock

Mrs. Betty McClintock and Harry McClintock, junior past matron and patron of Granite Chapter 650, Order of Eastern Star, were special guests of honor at a meeting during the weekend.

Presiding at the meeting was the newly elected officers, Mrs. Betty Elbrecht, worthy matron, and Robert Elbrecht, worthy patron.

Following the meeting, a holiday party was hosted in the downstairs dining room which was decorated in keeping with the Yuletide season.

Each member received a gift and a small wooden soldier as a favor.

Bethesda Christmas program

Bethesda Temple Pentecostal Church, 22nd and State streets, will present the church Christmas program at 7:30 Saturday night, according to the pastor, the Rev. Charles Browning.

The Youth Department will give recitations and sing songs to open the evening program, followed by a program by ladies organizations.

A selection of Christmas carols will be sung by the church choir, Rev. Browning said.

The pastor said Santa will arrive at the church on Sunday.

Bernaia-Russell engagement

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Russell, 1848 Spring Ave., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Susan E. Russell, to Aviation Apprentice Dennis R. Bernaia, U. S. Navy.

A spring wedding is being planned.

Miss Russell is a senior year student at Granite High School North.

Her fiancé is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Bernaia, 2100 Manley Ave. He is a graduate of Granite City High School South.

The prospective bridegroom recently graduated from recruit training at Great Lakes Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill. Presently, he is enrolled at a technical training school at Memphis, Tenn.

VISITING IN AREA

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crimmins, Tooele, Utah, are visiting during the holidays in the Quad-Cities with relatives and friends. Mr. Crimmins is the brother of Miss Bernice Crimmins, 1530 Fifth St., Madison.

Bridge club meets in Collinsville

Mrs. Nelene Jones of Collinsville entertained members of a local bridge club during the weekend at their annual holiday dinner meeting.

Greenery was arranged with colored candles to decorate the dinner table and the Yuletide motif was used throughout the house.

After dinner, games were played. Prizes were won by Mrs. Virginia Johnson, a guest, the hostess and Mrs. Emmalou Boyer.

Others present were Mesdames Norma Kachigian, Lucille Broyles, Elvera Thurber, Sue Krueger and Agnes Ellenwood. Mrs. Thurber will host the Jan. 10 meeting.

Services for ex-soccer star

Funeral services were held Wednesday in Fairview Heights for Amalio "Emil" Cueto, 78, former star soccer player and manager, who died Sunday at St. Joseph's Hospital in Highland after a lengthy illness.

Among the survivors is a son, Eloy M. Cueto, assistant general superintendent of finishing at Granite City Steel.

A noted soccer player during the 1920s and 1930s, Mr. Cueto also managed teams which won nine consecutive St. Louis area municipal soccer championships. He also managed the professional Burke soccer team from East St. Louis.

Mr. Cueto moved to Troy a short time ago after living most of his life in the East St. Louis area. He was born in Spain.

He was a retired general foreman at the former American Zinc Co. plant in Fairmont City, where he worked 45 years. He was listed in the Spanish Society Hall of Fame in St. Louis and was a member of the Retired Supervisors of the American Zinc Co.

Beside his son, Eloy, Mr. Cueto is survived by his wife, Alicia; a daughter, Mrs. Joseph (Ines) Bratton of Washington, D.C.; another son, Julius Cueto of Fairview Heights; a sister, Miss Albina Cueto of St. Louis; and several grandchildren.

William Thomas dies at 95

William H. Thomas, 95, of 1041 Market St., a retired employe of Granite City Steel, was taken from his home by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was pronounced dead upon arrival at 6:30 a.m. Monday.

Born in Beebe, Ark., he moved to the Quad City area in 1921.

Mr. Thomas was a member of Mount Nebo Baptist Church and a 50-year member of Masonic Lodge 120 of Madison.

Continue house check plan

Madison County Sheriff John Maeras reminded Quad-City residents this week that his department's vacation check program remains in effect throughout the year, not just during the summer months.

Maeras requests persons who will be leaving their homes unattended for vacation to notify the appropriate police department. The Sheriff's Department is responsible for the unincorporated areas of Madison County.

For areas covered by his department, Maeras will have deputies on patrol pass the house three times per day and check for suspicious persons or signs of burglary or vandalism.

He said persons planning to leave for vacation should call his department at 1-492-4433 and let deputies the date they will be leaving and the date they will return.

Vacationers should take other normal precautions before leaving such as leaving a light on, closing all drapes and arranging for mail to be picked up daily by a neighbor, the sheriff concluded.

Steal yule lights

Three Granite City residents reported Tuesday that outdoor Christmas decorations were stolen from their homes.

Ray Yount, 1620 Ferguson Ave., reported that 100 sets of outdoor lights worth $250 were stolen from his house and a tree.

Five sets of lights worth $35 were taken from an outdoor display at the home of Albert Pritchett, 1841 Spring Ave., and about $20 worth of lights were taken from a tree at the home of R. Charles Simon, 1845 Spring Ave.

No Illinois flu outbreak

If it's any consolation as you lie there with a sore throat, diarrhea, nausea, vomiting, aches, pains and other problems, if you're in Illinois, you almost certainly don't have flu.

Either a type of B type. Or the new Australian sub-type. Make you feel better already? The Illinois Public Health Department runs an annual influenza surveillance starting in late autumn, well ahead of the usual flu season, which is more likely to develop in late December and run through January and February.

So far this year, says Dr. Roger Budge, who heads up the surveillance system this year, there hasn't been a single case of flu, confirmed by laboratory analysis, reported in the state.

"That doesn't mean there couldn't have been a flu case somewhere in the state," he says. "But there certainly isn't any problem in Illinois with it at this time. And if there has been a case, anywhere in the state, we don't know about it."

Earlier this fall, news stories reported that the Australian strain, a sub-type of Type A, is expected to be the dominant flu this winter. But Dr. Budge said there is no way to predict if it actually will, or when, or how severe the outbreak might be if it did.

Anyway, once the patient has it, there isn't any known treatment for it, just like all the rest of the influenza varieties, he says.

Anyone over 65, or with chronic illnesses, or respiratory complaints, would be wise to really should already have done so, since it requires a little time after the inoculation to develop immunity.

However, better late than never is apparently the rule. And since the disease hasn't yet been seen in the state, there is still time for possible victims to get the shots, he added.

Obviously, once the symptoms start—a sudden onset of shaking chills, aching muscles and then usually a runny nose, sore throat and a high fever—it's too late to go looking for immunization and immunity.

By then, the only "treatment" lies in the old classics: bed rest, plenty of fluids, and aspirin for the aches.

Through the general public tends to class any disease with similar symptoms as "flu," most of the cases actually are medically something different, he said.

True flu, he added, is not usually marked by vomiting or diarrhea, and if these are present, they usually are comparatively minor.

Supporting the data showing no reportings of confirmed flu cases, Dr. Budge said the statistics also don't show the kinds of trends of school and work absenteeism which are normally found in flu outbreaks.

There have been some minor changes in school absentee reports, he said, but these probably reflect only colds or other respiratory complaints.

Specialized services will mark holiday

Clients of Specialized Services will be entertained at a Christmas party to be held at the Godfrey Civic Center, 327 South Ave., Godfrey, Ill., from 11:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Clients will attend from East Alton, Wood River, Alton, Granite City, Venice and Collinsville.

Approximately 350 people will be served dinner, and dancing to the music of "Journey" will follow. Each client will receive a present and a treat of a stocking stuffed with candy, fruit and nuts. Prizes also will be given.

Organizations, businesses and churches have donated items, gifts and volunteers for the Christmas celebration. Candy, nuts, fruit, prizes, drink cups, plates and silverware are a few of the donations received by the agency. Volunteers from a church will help in serving the dinner.

Charity show 8 p.m. today

The second annual Christmas Charity Show will be presented today at 8 p.m. in the Granite City High School South Gymnasium.

Donations of 50 cents are being asked at the door.

The program is being presented by the Advanced Mixed Chorus and Madrigal members from South.

Method to keep Yule tree fresh

By RON CORNWELL
Agricultural Extension Adviser

While a fresh Christmas tree will remain fresh and fragrant through the Christmas season if you take care of it. A dried out tree will become a fire hazard in a short period of time.

To insure a fresh tree, cut your own Christmas tree from a local tree farm. If you can't do this, purchase a tree as early as possible to insure greater freshness.

The key to keeping a Christmas tree fresh is to insure that the tree doesn't dry out. To do this, it is important that the base of the tree be kept in water from the first day of purchase.

If a tree has stood for a period of time in a sales lot, the pores in the base of the tree through which water is taken up will become plugged.

To remove the tree up-take ability of the tree, a new cut should be made at a right angle to the base of the tree, removing about one inch of the trunk.

The tree should be displayed in a base that will hold water. It is important that this base be kept full of water during the entire time the tree is displayed inside.

It is not uncommon for the tree to use two quarts of water during the first 24 hours and one quart of water a day during the first week.

Efficient use of available fertilizer supplies should be an important consideration for your 1975 cropping program. Testing your soil in the fall and early winter will enable you to maximize fertilizer efficiency. A proper sample is the key to a good soil test.

Here are some suggestions for taking soil samples. Take your samples at a uniform depth within the plow layer. The plow layer will be 6 to 10 inches, depending on how deep you plow.

It is the first time you have sampled the field, take a few subsoil samples from 12 inches to 24 inches deep. These samples will give you an idea of subsoil fertility.

The subsoil samples should not be the basis of a fertilizer recommendation but only for your information.

It is suggested that you take one sample per acre for five acres. This means 10 samples in a 40-acre field.

Be careful not to combine samples from parts of the field that have been fertilized or cropped differently. The soil will have different nutrient values where it has been treated differently.

Avoid sampling in the crop row in fertilizer band. Nutrient levels will be low in between rows and high in the band. Also avoid sampling small areas that specialist, recommends keeping plantings 75 to 100 feet from drives or walks to prevent snow from drifting.

Urban residential lots are often not large enough to accommodate extensive screening windbreak plantings. However, groupings of three to five pine saplings 8 to 12 feet apart will screen views and provide some wind protection.

For additional information on windbreaks, contact the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service office at 900 Hillsboro in Edwardsville.

ENTER SERVICE STATION
Granite City police on routine patrol at 3:45 p.m. Sunday discovered a window pane broken out of a north side window at Ralph's Texaco, 22nd Street and Madison Avenue. Officers entered and learned the cash register and a storage area had been entered. It was not determined if anything was stolen.

Emphasis on SIUE graduate programs

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville should place "major emphasis upon the further development of upper undergraduate and graduate programs in the academic and professional fields presently established," according to a mission and scope statement approved by the SIUE Board of Trustees.

The statement also calls for SIUE to develop new programs in areas where "clear educational needs are identified, and where faculty competence and university resources can justify them."

Trustees voted to send the statement to the Illinois Board of Higher Education, which is in the process of developing a fourth phase in its master plan for state higher education.

According to the statement, SIUE will remain primarily a commuter campus, serving students preparing for "fully independent and productive lives," and older persons "seeking lifelong continuing education to enhance their knowledge and skills."

The statement also pledges the university to "devote resources to research concerning, and implementation of, effective programs for educationally disadvantaged students."

The mission of SIUE is also described as extending "beyond the physical confines of its main campus facilities" and involving "delivery of its programs and resources to clients at other sites when needs can best be served within these locales."

"Instruction will continue to be this university's major commitment, and resources will be allocated to support an appropriate balance among the areas of instruction, research and service," the statement says.

The mission and scope statement was originally developed by committees including both faculty and administration as part of the Resources Allocation and Management Program required by the BHE and administration as part of the Resources Allocation and Management Program required by the trustees.

Amvets yule party Saturday

Commander Vasil Graville of Amvets Post 204, in Madison, announced that the group's meeting that the annual Christmas parties will be held at Polish Hall on Saturday.

A party will be held for the children at 1 p.m. and another party for the adults will begin with dinner at 7 p.m.

It was announced by Graville that the cleanup day on Dec. 7 had a good turnout and the women did a real "good turn" for the Amvets.

Walker Whitaker, Granite City, was introduced as a new member and Thomas Glenn of Edwardsville, as an associate member.

Commander Graville reminded everyone that the women will hold a fish fry on the first Friday of each month, from 5 p.m. until 10 p.m., at the Amvets Home, 1242 Iowa St., Madison.

Graville reminded the club that 1975 dues are now due.

Madison students hear lecture

The sixth grade social studies students of Dunbar and Louis Baer Schools in Madison heard a lecture by David L. Black, chief, Office of Information, Defense Mapping Agency, Aerospace Center, St. Louis, Thursday.

Black's discussion centered around the aeronautical chart, how it is made and how it is used. He showed charts prepared for the Apollo lunar landing and the Skylab program. This was followed by an information question and answer session.

Black's lecture is one of several that is being scheduled as part of a new Social Studies Program (Active Learning) that is being developed in the two schools by a committee of teachers made up of Mrs. Mary Quinn, Ed Sido, David Thompson, Sara Veach, Mrs. Rita Barnhart, and Mrs. Gladys Steptoe.

The principals of the Dunbar and Louis Baer Schools are Bernard Long and Robert Barnhart, respectively.

The Social Studies Program is being funded by the Department of the Program for the Gifted, Gary Hoffman is the state director of the Gifted Children's Program.

Madison-Venice Rotary club hears yule music program

The Madison-Venice Rotary Club held its annual Christmas meeting Wednesday with 135 students singing and dancing under the direction of Mrs. Valerie Stevens of the Madison school system vocal music department.

Students performing Wednesday night at the Madison Recreation Center, Seventh and Lee streets, Madison, came from Harris, Louis Baer, Madison High schools and Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The entire group started the program singing "Jingle Bells."

In honor of the Jewish holiday Hanukkah, Louis Baer students sang "Light a Candle."

Solists and students doing special numbers included Pam Butler, Nathaniel Boyd, Judy Riskovsky, Joan Miller, Donna Murray, Debra Noblin, Lynn Rice, Patty Wilson, Terri Martin, Donna Allister, Sandy Walliser, Jay Bush, Karen Walliser, Lisa Sellers, Martha Ferris, Dawn Griffen, Helen Reed, Laura Christ, Pamela Butler, Michellen Kargnes, Lisa Sellers, Melissa Crook, and Derrick Jackson.

Teachers assisting Mrs. Stevens were Mrs. Louis Brazil, Mrs. Addie Darden, Mrs. Marian Simms and David Becker.

President John Blasingame announced the club raised $190 bell ringing last weekend in Madison for the Salvation Army Tree of Lights campaign. He also announced there will be no meeting until Jan. 8, beginning with an 11 a.m. meeting of the old and new boards of directors at the center.

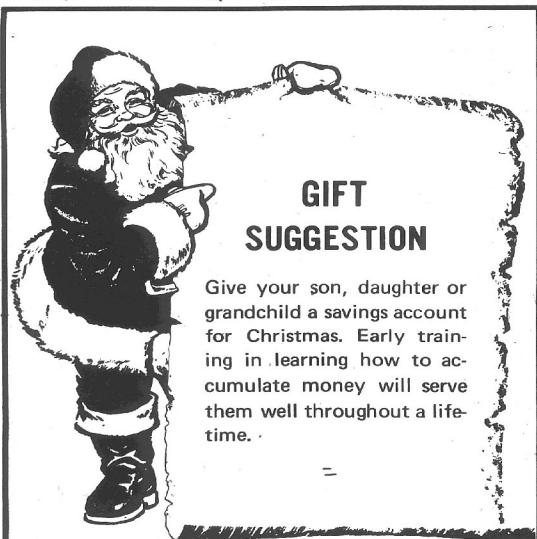

Burglary at St. Joseph

Five microphones worth a total of $305 were stolen from St. Joseph Catholic Church and rectory, 2101 State St., it was reported Monday.

A housekeeper said she heard footsteps in the rectory and church stairways Sunday afternoon and a clean-up lady reported finding the church's center doors unlocked later that afternoon.

Three microphones were stolen from the altar of the church, one was taken from the rectory vault and a small microphone was taken from the church office. The secretary's desk drawers also were opened, it was reported.

Farmers favor trade legislation

Illinois farmers have called for a national farm policy that would avoid price-depressing overproduction and have urged immediate passage of the trade reform legislation now before Congress.

Adoption of policy positions on a wide range of public and agricultural issues was a final order of business of the 60th annual meeting of the Illinois Farm Bureau in Chicago's Palmer House. The meeting concluded during the weekend.

In a policy recommendation on the federal agricultural adjustment program, the IFB's 472 delegates urged the American Farm Bureau Federation to encourage the U.S. Department of Agriculture, in its administration of farm programs, to:

(1) Announce the details of the program early so farmers may know all the facts about participation before they make their management decisions.

(2) Avoid changing program provisions after the original announcements and sign-up.

(3) Avoid over-reacting to current supply-demand conditions in announcing program provisions which could stimulate gross overproduction in the years ahead.

"Because of the many years of experience with overproduction and surpluses with recent volatile markets," the delegates said, "farmers are justly concerned about calls for all-out production and the possibility of overproduction and severely depressed prices."

"With the rapidly increasing prices of production supplies, such a development would push many farmers into bankruptcy."

To deal with this uncertain situation, the delegates said they favor a voluntary stand-by land retirement program which can be used to adjust overall crop acreage to bring production into line with market needs at reasonable price levels.

The voting delegates said the proposed Trade Reform Act of 1974 now before Congress is "vital in helping provide a sound policy base for expanded trade for the United States in the future," and they urged that the trade bill be passed immediately "without crippling or non-related amendments."

Copies will be available in the University Center at the Information Center, Black Student Association office and Student Activities office.

before the present session of Congress adjourns.

"Delay at this point will mean starting over with the new Congress, and passage of the vital legislation will be delayed."

The Farm Bureau delegates also said the organization will support state land use legislation (1) to provide for a more uniform and coordinated program of land use planning and means of implementing the same, (2) to encourage preservation of appropriate lands for agricultural use and open spaces use through land use programs and tax considerations, and (3) to prevent the state government from imposing land use legislation as a qualification for obtaining state or federal grants or loans in areas where this is not now required.

The delegates said the Farm Bureau will seek legislation to require members of a county zoning board of appeals to reside within the area covered by the county zoning ordinance, and also to require that the zoning board be a municipality, which is controlled by municipal zoning, be represented on the municipal zoning board of appeals.

In the policy on state and local revenue, the delegates reaffirmed their support for a position that the overall tax structure for state and local governments in Illinois should include a state income tax, modified local real property tax, sales tax, motor fuel tax and other special taxes.

They stressed that major emphasis should be placed on income tax as a means to reduce real estate taxes and as a source of additional revenues.

In the matter of grain reserves, IFB opposes the creation of government-held grain reserves. The delegates said such reserves "can best be held by farmers, grain processors, grain trade and foreign buyers in widely dispersed locations."

"The developed countries of the world that are buyers of U.S. grain should be encouraged and, if necessary, assisted to manage their own inventories and not to depend upon the U.S. to carry reserves to meet their needs."

"Major grain processors and buyers in the U.S. should manage their own inventories and not depend upon a government-owned reserve. Farmers should be encouraged to expand their own farm reserve throughout the year."

The state Farm Bureau delegates said they favor establishment of an international food fund to meet disaster needs in the world.

"Such a fund should be supported by all nations of the world that wish to participate in the benefits of such a program."

"To meet disaster needs, funds could be withdrawn from the international food fund, and food could be purchased from any nation where it was available."

Solved police cases double

The number of crime cases in Granite City during November decreased by 6.6 per cent below those of the same month a year ago, but the number of cases solved by the Police Department was 110.5 per cent greater than in November 1973, according to a report this week by Chief of Police Ronald Veizer.

The report shows that 217 crime cases were reported during November, with 48 of the cases cleared by arrests, compared with a total of 231 cases and 20 cleared during the same month of the previous year.

There were no homicide or rape cases during November this year, and only one robbery case, compared with two rape cases and two robbery cases in November 1973, according to the report.

A total of 62 burglary cases was reported last month, down four from a year ago. Other cases included 52 auto burglaries, down four; 17 assault cases, down five; 65 larceny cases, down five and 20 auto thefts, down two.

Of the 17 assault cases occurring in November, police cleared ten by arrests, compared with two cases cleared a year ago. Of the 62 burglary cases, police cleared 11, up five from the six cases solved in November 1973. Also cleared by arrest were 16 larceny cases, up ten from six cases cleared in the same month of the previous year. Four of the 20 auto thefts reported in November were cleared by arrests, compared to none cleared of 22 reported a year ago.

The report said a total of 333 charges were filed in police cases last month, up from 213 during the same month a year ago. Last month's charges included 190 traffic charges, 85 arrests on other charges, making a total of 275 arrests.

Fifty-eight additional charges were filed in these cases. During the same month in 1973 there were 141 traffic arrests and 51 arrests on other charges, plus 21 additional charges.

One fatal accident occurred in Granite City last month, bringing the total to four so far this year. Last year at the same time there were six traffic fatalities.

The fatal accident was in addition to 39 accidents involving personal injuries and 130 accidents involving only property damage. In November 1973 there were one fatal accident, 32 personal injury accidents and 127 property damage accidents for a total of 160 mishaps.

A total of 62 persons was injured in the 39 injury accidents last month, compared to 50 persons hurt in the 32 injury mishaps the previous year. Last month's injury accidents brought the total number of such accidents, involving 526 persons injured, so far this year. At the same time a year ago there was a total of 362 injury accidents involving 514 persons injured.

Veizer reported the police department also recovered eight stolen autos, made 57 vascor arrests and ten arrests for driving with improper mufflers.

Offers course in pharmacology

Belleville Area College will offer in the spring 1975 semester a course in pharmacology. It will be a general discussion of pharmacology designed for the education of nursing students, pharmacy aides and technicians, and the public. It will also be a source of information for the registered nurse and pharmacist interested in continuing education. Some items which will be discussed in the course are:

1. Specific drugs and groups of drugs, both prescription and over-the-counter, as they apply to the patient.
2. Common side effects of these drugs.
3. Common sense in the use of prescription and over-the-counter products, including any harmful interactions which may occur.
4. Disease states and the proper use of the pharmaceuticals needed for these conditions, including: diabetes and insulin, bacterial infections and antibiotics, and hypertension and the antihypertensives.
5. A discussion of drug abuse and its implications, including: amphetamines, barbiturates, opiates and marijuana. The topic would be of interest to parents and students who want to be aware without experimentation, a spokesman said.

6. The profession of pharmacy and its operation. Its relationship to other health professions and the patient. Pharmacy laws and how they affect the patient, the nurse and the doctor.

The course will not simply be a lecture. Open discussion among the participants will take place, augmented by audio-visual aids and guest lecturers.

The course will be of interest and education to anyone interested in the subject of drugs, it was related.

The class will begin on Tuesday, Jan. 14, and will be held from 7 to 9:45 p.m. Instructor will be Charles Hoercher, R. Ph.

Registration will take place Jan. 5-9.

County governments in economic squeeze

The economic squeeze that is affecting many families and businesses is also hurting Illinois county government, according to Rep. A. T. McMaster of Oneida.

Speaking to chairmen of Farm Bureau County and Community Action Committees during the Illinois Farm Bureau's annual meeting in Chicago during the weekend, McMaster said property tax limits have been reached in many counties and there is great pressure to keep property taxes down in others.

"The county government's share of state income tax and local sales tax is decreasing as annexations occur," he said. "In addition, the new Illinois Constitution has made major cutbacks in the personal property tax base."

Rep. McMaster said another crisis might be encountered in 1978 when the federal revenue sharing program ends because Congress may not renew it or might reduce its size.

He said recent legislation would provide some but not enough relief to floundering counties.

One bill allows counties to charge the cost of collection to other taxing units. Another bill grants counties an additional $5-6 million in motor fuel tax funds.

Still another grants $6 million annually for local governments which the state now keeps as a fee for collecting local sales taxes.

While county governments battle to survive, township roles are expanding, he said. Federal revenue sharing funds are now available to townships, and township consolidation elections held in November failed, McMaster said, attempts to weaken township governments and abolish townships altogether have been defeated both in the legislature and at the polls.

Chairman of a commission to modernize and codify township laws, he said many township problems now arise because of vagueness, confusion, duplication and ambiguities in township laws.

"The commission will solve these problems by simplifying and clarifying the laws and by making decisions about town meetings, duties of elected officers and governmental powers of townships," he said.

Charge 2 boys

Don Moore, 17, of 5209 Maryville Road, was charged with theft and a 16-year-old boy faces juvenile charges of theft and a curfew violation after a Madison County sheriff's deputy allegedly saw two boys attempting to steal tires from an auto parked at Granite City High School North at 1:40 a.m. Tuesday.

The deputy said as he approached the car, two boys ran. He notified Granite City police and caught one boy nearby. The other boy escaped. Moore was apprehended at 3:30 a.m. Tuesday by Granite City police and was taken to the police station where he was charged.

$1,400 burglary

Items worth about $1,400 were stolen from the mobile home of Karen Berghahn, 2715 W. 22nd St., it was reported this week. Entry was gained by forcing a west side window. Taken were a tape player, about 300 record albums and two six-packs of beer.

Hydrocarbons in drinking water are to be studied

The latest environmental alert is that drinking water may cause cancer. In November, the Environmental Defense Fund (EDF) reported the results of studies that indicate a possible link between certain cancers and the drinking water of the Mississippi River far south of here.

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) confirmed the presence of several organic chemicals, some suspected carcinogens, in the New Orleans water supply. Studies conducted throughout the U.S. by other investigators indicate the probability of widespread contamination of water supplies.

In the Nov. 29 issue of Science, the weekly journal of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, staff writer Jean L. Marx discusses the probability of contaminated drinking water.

The EDF study, performed by Robert Harris of EDF and Talbot Page of Resources for the Future, reported that the cancer mortality rate was 15 per cent higher among white males who drank water from the Mississippi near New Orleans than among those who drank from wells. Groundwater supplying the wells is unlikely to be contaminated with chemicals, it was determined. While the study does not prove that the chemicals in drinking water cause cancer, Harris does think that the evidence is strong enough to warrant further study.

According to the EPA, the New Orleans water supply contains traces of many organic chemicals. Chloroform and other possible carcinogens, such as carbon tetrachloride and the pesticide dieldrin, are present.

Along with concern about the safety of drinking water, said Marx, are reports that chlorination of water supplies may be a source of hazardous compounds.

Chlorine destroys bacteria, such as those causing cholera and typhoid, but it may also react with hydrocarbons in the water to form their chlorinated derivatives. These derivatives are generally thought to be more carcinogenic than the parent hydrocarbons.

Russell Train, administrator of the EPA, has ordered a nationwide survey of water supplies to be conducted in several cities, and preliminary results should be available in three to five months.

In the second phase of the EPA study, investigators will attempt to discover and eliminate sources of contamination and remove existing contaminants from water supplies.

Evaluating the seriousness of the problem will be difficult. At present, compounds are screened for their carcinogenicity in animals, but their effect on man is uncertain.

An additional complication is whether or not there is a threshold concentration below which a carcinogen has no effect.

Further, chemicals in mixtures may interact with one another to enhance or diminish their capacity to cause cancer.

Despite these uncertainties, Marx explains, most investigators would prefer to minimize or eliminate human exposure, and they are convinced that further studies are imperative.

5 autos looted at Grigsby

Owners of five cars told Granite City police Monday evening that their autos had been entered and stereo equipment stolen while all five autos were parked at Grigsby Junior High School.

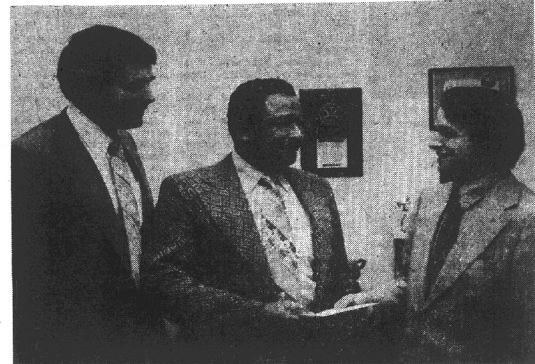

Rick Reutebuch, 2141 Delmar Ave., and Barry Loman, 56 Janday Lane, reported coat hangers apparently had been used to unlock their autos. Reutebuch said a $100 tape player was taken from his car and Loman reported the loss of a $155 combination radio and tape player.

Charles Roussan, 1403 Grand Ave., said the left wing vent window of his car was broken and the car was ransacked. A $250 combination radio and tape player was taken. An $87 tape player was taken from the car of David Cooper, 4 Lilly Ave., after the right front window was broken.

Kevin McGovern, 2535 Iowa St., also reported his auto was entered and two speakers and four tape recordings, worth a total of $87 were taken. His tape player was damaged but was not removed.

St. Peter's youth program Sunday

The annual church school Christmas program will be presented at St. Peter's Evangelical United Church of Christ at 7 p.m. Sunday.

All church school pupils will participate in a special presentation, entitled "The Night That Was," under the direction of Mrs. Glen Cornelison. Robert Hutcheson, organist-choirmaster, will direct the Junior and Handbell choirs.

Mrs. Cornelison explained the program, theme revolves around two boys who meet at church camp during the summer months and write their thoughts to each other at Christmas time. Their messages then are translated into living scenes by the youth performers.

Following the program, the entire congregation will be served refreshments at a "birthday party for Jesus" fellowship hour. Church school teachers will present gifts to their students at that time, Mrs. Cornelison said.

At the 10:15 a.m. worship service Sunday, the Rev. Robert Kettelhut, pastor, will conclude his series of Advent meditations on the theme "All Roads Lead to Bethlehem."

The sacrament of baptism will be celebrated and the Chancel Choir will provide special music, the minister said. Child care will be available both in the morning and at the evening program.

The Christmas Eve carol and candlelight service will begin at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday. Pre-service organ music will be furnished by Hutcheson, starting at 7:15 p.m., and seasonal selections will sung by the Chancel Choir and featured soloists.

GRACE BAPTIST YOUTH VISIT PLANETARIUM

The young people of Grace Baptist Church attended a Christmas show at the St. Louis planetarium during the weekend. The event was arranged by the director of the children's department, Mrs. Martha Bandy.

Fifty-three children and 11 adults viewed the show and later had refreshments at the Dairy Queen in Madison.

Carol A. Berneking and Dennis Mueller are wed

Miss Carol Ann Berneking became the bride of Dennis N. Mueller in a candlelight setting at St. Martin of Tours Church in Washington Park on Nov. 28.

The Rev. Jose Ramirez performed the double ring ceremony at five o'clock in the evening before an altar decorated with bouquets of mums in rainbow colors and greenery. Burning tapers in brass candelabra illuminated the sanctuary.

Mark Eysteine of St. Louis provided a program of nuptial music during the ceremony. Parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Berneking, reside at 5624 Hallows Ave., Washington Park. Mrs. Berneking is the former Catherine Yurko of Madison.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mueller, 1703 Gross Ave., East St. Louis.

For her wedding, the bride wore a full length gown fashioned with a high neckline of pearls and lace. The decorative trim was repeated on the bodice to accent a transparent oval yoke and matching lace motifs were applied on the A-line style skirt.

The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white bow tie. He wore a lace Juliet cap to secure a double tiered fingertip veil bordered in delicate lace. The bride's bouquet was an arrangement of white roses and pom poms interspersed with greenery.

Maid of honor Miss Catherine Ann Berneking, a sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids, Miss Patricia Ann Yurko and Miss Mary Kay Mikulicz, the bride's cousins, Miss Stella Konopka and Miss Karen Mueller, were gowned in identically styled dresses.

Their frocks were made with high necklines, full bishop sleeves and velvet bodices designed in a jacket effect. The long crepe skirts were in contrasting colors of blue, moss green, orchid, pink and Nile green.

Each attendant wore a velvet bow headpiece and carried a bouquet of carnations in a shade to match her gown.

The groom chose his cousin, Thomas Wierciak, as best man. Joseph Berneking, the bride's cousin, and Robert Baczewski, Stephen Baczewski, Kevin Lemanski, David Lemanski and Anthony Lemanski, cousins of the groom, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

A reception was held in the American Legion Hall in Fairmont City.

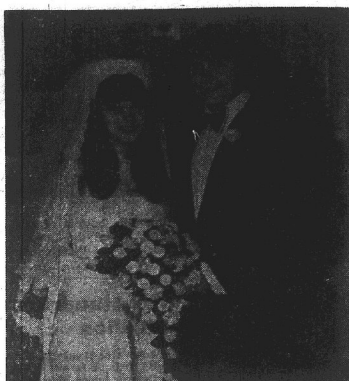

Members of the wedding party were entertained at a rehearsal dinner at Roastie's Restaurant in Collinsville.

A graduate of St. Teresa Academy, East St. Louis, the former Miss Berneking is a member of St. Teresa Alumnae Association. She formerly was employed at General American Life Insurance Co., St. Louis.

The groom was graduated from Assumption High School, East St. Louis, and attended Belleville Area College. He now works at Western Auto Supply in O'Fallon.

They are residing in Washington Park.

Christmas is Cub pack theme

An "Old Fashioned Christmas" was the theme of the Cub Scout Pack 28 monthly meeting at Parkview School, with Cubmaster Ray Hillard in charge.

The colors and opening ceremony were led by Den 1. Under the leadership of Mrs. Judy Quinn, the pack sang "We Wish You A Merry Christmas." She then explained the origin of the song. The group was taught an African Christmas carol assisted by Mike Lovine and Paul Milton on the drums.

The dens displayed Santa Candy canes and styrofoam ornaments the Cubs made, which will decorate a Christmas tree at the Madison County Nursing Home.

Awards were presented by Cubmaster Hillard to Richard Lovins, Wolf badge, gold and silver arrow, a one-year service star and a one-year perfect attendance pin; Joe Marlette, Wolf badge; James Small, one-year service star; Mike Bellipanni, one-year perfect attendance.

Chad Overath, one gold and three silver arrows; Douglas Thornburg, one gold and four silver arrows.

Andy and Jeff McPherson each received Bobcat pins. Marvin Meng, Dan Brown, Lee Gunter and Mike Lovine received the Webelos artist award, and David Paschke the Webelos sportsman award.

Hillard announced that the Pine Wood Derby will be held Jan. 13.

The attendance award went to Den 3 for having the most parents present.

Den 3 also retired the colors and refreshments were provided and served by the mothers of Den 2.

Evening Etude attends concert

Several friends joined members of the Evening Etude Music Club for an evening at Powell Symphony Hall in St. Louis during the weekend.

The group, consisting of young people and adults who enjoy music, took along their musical scores and joined with the chorus and orchestra in the sing-a-long concert which featured "The Messiah."

Persons interested in music and the club's many activities are invited to contact Mrs. Joe Owens, president, Mrs. Robert Kozielek vice-president or Mrs. Joe Blubrey Jr. for further information.

State farmers commend Butz

L. Butz.

In a business session of the IPS annual meeting in Chicago's Palmer House, delegates set aside the normal order of business to adopt the resolution supporting the agriculture secretary.

The resolution says that "Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz has been a tireless worker in behalf of American farmers. As a strong advocate of international trade, he has helped open new markets for American farm products."

"As a proponent of a strong market-oriented agriculture, he has pursued policies and programs to reduce farmers' reliance on federal farm programs and to place greater reliance on the market system."

"As an articulate and capable spokesman, he has had the courage to forcefully emphasize the importance of a healthy agricultural economy to the farmer, to the American consumer and to our national well being."

He has been willing to challenge the critics of the American farmer and the American competitive enterprise system.

"We take this opportunity to commend Dr. Earl Butz and urge President Ford to continue his support of Secretary Butz."

THEFT FROM NEW CARS

Women in academia say status is not improving

Betty Richardson, associate professor of English languages and literature at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, has written a book on "Sexism in Higher Education." The book is an expansion of "The Happy Hooker in the Classroom: Female Rights and Professional Responsibilities," a paper she presented at the 1972 Midwest Modern Language Association convention. The paper was published in the MMLA's bulletin that year.

In the book, Prof. Richardson takes apart and examines the gamesmanship played between men and women in academia.

"Despite new affirmative action guidelines and increased pressure, the status of women in academia has changed very little," Prof. Richardson warns.

"Nowhere is resistance to feminine freedom more obvious than in academic life," she said.

"Sexism in Higher Education," which went on sale in early December, is a product of her experiences as a student, graduate student, student wife, faculty member, faculty wife, newspaper reporter, society editor and feminist. "I listened a lot," Prof. Richardson said. Although this is her first book, Prof. Richardson has extensive background in writing. She was once a reporter and society editor for the Springfield (Ohio) Daily News; assistant editor of the Prairie Schooner, a professional literary magazine at the University of Nebraska; an associate editor for Papers on Language and Literature; and editor for Concerns, a newsletter for the Modern Language Association.

Many of her articles, papers, and reviews have appeared in literary publications.

Dizzy Dozen hosts Christmas dinner

A Christmas dinner was served to members of the Dizzy Dozen Pinocchio Club at Pete and Mary's last week. A gift exchange and card games followed.

Those attending were Betty Rutkowski, Marian Lipscomb, Cecelia Cruse, Gerlie Barley, Toppie Barum, Mary Murgie, Dorothy Kowalk, Mary Tucker, Loretta Coleman, Agnes Roderick, Evelyn Ferro, Mary Merz and a guest, Loretta Pritchard.

Mrs. Ferro invited the group to her home for the Jan. 28 meeting.

Junior gardeners attend Yule party

Gifts were exchanged and refreshments were served at a Christmas party for members of the Fair Oaks Junior Garden Club held during the weekend at the home of Kim Blankenship, 2000 Pontoon Road.

Mrs. Clara Winter, a senior advisor, reviewed the history of the "Poinsettia" as part of the program. Mrs. Pat Blankenship and Mrs. Carolyn Stearns were the other adult advisers present.

Members attending the party were Jennifer Herman, Jeff and Shannon Lamb, Mary Lou Metcalf, Susan Sigle, Peggy Smolich and Jill Donley.

Minerva Reading Club hosts party

A late buffet supper and carol singing highlighted the annual Christmas party of the Minerva Reading Club of Madison held in the home of Mrs. Yelda Taylor, 430 Arlington Drive.

Gifts were exchanged and a special program, including two readings—"Caroling" and "Silent Night"—was presented by Miss Mary McBrien.

Mrs. Judy Zelenak, president, led a moment of silence for Miss Grace Costello, a club member who died Dec. 8.

Guests introduced were Mrs. Carol Richey, Mrs. Donna Scott, Mrs. Laura Rapoff and Mrs. Shirley Lybarger.

Members attending were Helen Holder, Helen Daley, Georgia Harlow, Marilyn Juneau, Mary Molitor, Carole Perry, Mary Betas, Shirley Rapoff, Vivian Rowden, Mary Stanfill, Clova Taylor and Bertie Weiss, who served as co-hosts.

Yule dinner for quilters

Members of the Madison United Methodist Quilting Society met at the church for quilting and a Christmas dinner. Gifts were placed around a lighted Christmas tree and were distributed after the dinner hour.

The Rev. Mike Smith, a guest, offered the invocation and enjoyed dinner with the ladies. Those seated for a chicken and dumpling meal prepared by Mrs. Ann Ritter, with covered dishes provided by the members, were Medean Cornelia Hommert, Alma Capehart, Theresa Fogle, Edna Foster, Helen Cook, Jewel Jones and Lena Williams.

Quilting continued after the dinner. Baby quilts are being made at present.

Creating gift wrap, bows

By CATHERINE R. MAUCK
Madison County Extension
Adviser - Home Economics

Create your own gift wrap. For a seamstress's gift, sew fabric scraps together to design a patchwork wrapping and attach a tape measure as a ribbon.

Wrap color comic sections to wrap gifts for children. The sports section of your newspaper can serve as a possible gift wrap for an athlete.

For an earth look, try burlap from gunny sacks or feed sacks or brown paper bags. Decorate these with leaves, pine cones, nuts or dried weeds.

Plain construction paper, shelf paper or white freezer paper can be decorated to furnish wrapping paper. Cut up old Christmas cards and Christmas designs from newspaper inserts or other Christmas mailings and paste these on top of the plain paper.

Paint decorations on the package with tempera paint. If you fear taking a brush to empty paper, use fresh produce to create a design. For example, cut grapefruit, oranges or onions in half, dip them in paint, and press them onto the paper.

For fancier prints, carve designs in a potato half, dip it in paint, and press it onto the paper.

DECORATE COOKIES WITHOUT SUGAR

With sugar costs soaring, decorate your cookies without sugar. Instead of frosting your rolled cookies, paint them with colored egg yolk.

Before you bake the cookies, paint either the entire surface or designs on the cookies with small paintbrushes. If the "paint" begins to thicken, add a few drops of water.

For egg yolk paint: mix one beaten egg yolk with one-fourth teaspoon of water. Divide this mixture into several small containers and add a different food color to each container of the mixture.

PREPARING EGGNOG

To prepare safely, choose a recipe that cooks the eggs, sugar, and at least part of the milk.

Choose eggs with clean, uncracked shells. Sometimes, the outside of an eggshell has bacteria on it. When you break the egg, it may collect the bacteria by touching the outside shell.

KEEP YOUR FEET WARM

Careful selection of your socks and shoes keeps your feet warmer.

Socks that reach the knee keep your feet warmer than shorter socks. The air space in heavy wool or acrylic socks lets your feet "breathe" and provide more bulk to warm the feet than cotton or nylon.

To be warm, shoes need sturdy heels and soles such as crepe or rubber. Shoes with thicker heels and soles elevate your feet farther from the ground, resulting in warmer feet.

Shoes and boots that cover the

Because bacteria do not affect the smell, taste or looks of the drink, you won't know whether bacteria are present in the eggnog. You could become sick if you swallow them, however.

Therefore, cooking your eggnog first destroys bacteria. Then keep the drink chilled to prevent bacteria from growing in it again.

CLEAN DECORATIONS

Clean the soil from your felt decorations before they become hopeless.

Dry-cleaning usually rates as the most practical way to clean felt decorations, offers Marjorie Mead, University of Illinois Extension clothing specialist.

However, some trims can be damaged during dry-cleaning—especially those glued with rubber cement.

When you try to clean felt with water, take special precautions because water may shrink felt and cause the dye to run.

Consequently, she says, before laundering, test the effect of water in an obscure place on the felt. If no damage occurs, spot-clean the decoration—but only if the stain is water soluble.

Oust state licensing official

John B. Hayes was removed as superintendent of registration in the Department of Registration and Education Monday following an investigation of the licensing of physicians and nurses conducted by the Office of Special Investigations.

Hayes has been a state employee since 1959.

The two-month investigation centered on the licensing of nurses and physicians trained in foreign countries.

OSI investigative files relating to licensing have been turned over to Sangamon County State's Attorney C. Joseph Cavanagh for grand jury investigation into the activities of a number of persons. The OSI investigation will continue in cooperation with State's Attorney Cavanagh.

Director of the Department of Registration and Education Ronald E. Stackler has notified three graduates of foreign medical schools recently licensed to practice in Illinois that administrative proceedings to revoke their licenses are being initiated.

Hayes began his state employment as an administrative assistant to the then state treasurer, Joseph Lohman. Prior to that, he was highway police captain under Lohman when he was sheriff of Cook County.

Hayes joined the Department of Registration and Education in 1961 as chief investigator.

He was first appointed as superintendent of registration in 1963 and has served in that capacity ever since, except for two years of service with the secretary of state and two years with the superintendent of public instruction.

Charged with taking school instruments

Steve Presley, 18, of the 2700 block of Buxton Avenue, faces a felony charge of theft and a 16-year-old boy has been charged with theft as a juvenile offense, in connection with the removal of two musical instruments from the band room of Granite City High School North, which was reported at 2 p.m. Monday.

Shortly after school officials reported a $1,200 bass clarinet and an $800 baritone horn stolen, police received a call from an employee of Johnson Music Store in the Belleme Village Shopping Center saying a boy had just sold him the baritone horn for $50.

The employee said he paid the boy with a check and attempted to call the bank and halt payment of the check before he notified police, but the boy already had cashed it.

He gave officers an invoice for the sale bearing the name of a juvenile. School authorities held the boy having that name at GCIS North until officers took him into custody.

The Johnson Music Store employee later called and said another boy had just tried to sell him the clarinet for $50. The boy had said he would return about 3 p.m. for the money.

Detectives waited near the building until 3:10 p.m. when Presley arrived and was arrested inside the store.

Officers followed an auto from the shopping center parking lot to the 2700 block of Buxton Ave., where three boys went into a house.

Officers questioned them and arrested the car's owner, Bert Tomlinson, 29, of 2403 Kirkpatrick Homes, charging him with not having valid registration for his auto.

Police said an invoice from Johnson Music bearing Presley's signature was found inside the car. Two other boys in the house with Tomlinson were questioned but were not charged.

Textbook hours

Students attending Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville next quarter may pick up their textbooks after the holidays, according to James Oglesby, supervisor of Textbook Services.

The winter quarter schedule for book issues will be: Jan. 2-3 from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m.; Jan. 4 from 8 a.m. until noon; Jan. 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m.; Jan. 10 from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m.; and on Jan. 11 from 8 a.m. until noon.

On Jan. 13, 14, 15 and 16, the Textbook Services will be open from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. and on Jan. 17 from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Madison Sr. Citizens hold Christmas dinner

Eighty-two members of the Madison Senior Citizens met at the Madison Recreation Center for their annual Christmas dinner party. Twenty-eight guests from Granite City and Venice also signed the register. Each arrived with a covered dish to be served with turkey and dressing. Gifts were brought for a gift exchange.

The tables were adorned with the traditional Christmas greenery and assorted candy mints in Christmas containers. Gifts were at each place setting, and Santa presented each with a gift.

Those seated at the head table included Mayor and Mrs. Mike Sasyk, the Rev. Mike Smith, pastor of the United Methodist Church of Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Maeras, Police Chief Frank Dutko, Mrs. Rita Lybarger, Al Hudzik, Frank Fijan, Mrs. Mary Lahey, Mrs. Lucy M. Lucido, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bridick and Clarence Green, past president of the group.

Mrs. Bridick welcomed the guests and members, and called on Rev. Smith for the invocation, followed with the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Gabriel Shrine initiates 17

Gabriel Shrine 78, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, conducted initiation ceremonies for 17 new members at a meeting during the weekend at the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Mary Ann DeHart, worthy priestess and Delbert McKissick, watchman of the ritual and business meeting.

New members included Marietta Daniels, Clara L. Jones, Glenogean Olson, Ruby Alma Rice, Shirley Schilling, Hazel Wheeler, Mary Church, Lela Hiller, Lucy Williams, Rita Scott, Evelyn Nancey, Shirley Brokaw, James Olson, Lindsay Church, Gerald Fisher, Harry McClintock and Frank Johnson.

After the meeting, 105 members attended a Christmas party and gift exchange. The dining room featured a large live decorated tree and seasonal motifs were used on the tables for the annual observance. The next meeting will be held on Jan. 9.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD Thurs., Dec. 19, 1974 Page 52

After dinner, the mayor spoke briefly, thanking the members for letting him be a part of their special meetings. Frank Fijan and John Sedlak also greeted the members.

Mrs. Bridick made announcements in regard to the remainder of the year's activities. Mrs. Dorothy Lionberger directed the Madison Senior Bell Ringers in playing a number of Christmas carols. The Madison Kitchen Band presented several selections, including the birthday song for those with birthdays in December.

Outlines steps for furniture refinishing

George Vaneiser, a local antique furniture refinisher, presented the program at the December meeting of the Daughters of American Revolution in the home of Mrs. Emma Schoen.

The guest speaker reviewed the best methods used in refinishing antique articles, and types of materials that produce the most satisfying results. He exhibited several wooden items in various stages of refinishing and explained steps to complete the work.

Miss Susan Seilheimer read "The Little Match Girl" as a conclusion to the program. Regent Mrs. Ruth McCarty presided over the meeting and Mrs. Janet Wilson read the president's general message.

A discussion was held on bus transportation for delegates who plan to attend the state DAR convention in March and also those who wish to attend the national convention in April.

Mrs. Schoen was appointed to determine if a workshop on genealogy would be a feasible project for the organization. Members present were Miss Nelle Hart, Mesdames Margaret Belt, Reva Turner, Mamie Frohhardt, Eva Meier, Barbara Williams, Jane Ann Vaneiser, Helen Gantcheff and guests, George and Michael Vaneiser and Miss Seilheimer.

We try harder to make your Christmas merrier!
